Fascists Make Gains In German State Elections

But Hitler Falls Short of Taking Helm In Prussia

Braun Government Expected to Continue to Direct Affairs While Lengthy Struggle to Form Coalition Goes On

FASCISTS LEAD IN THREE OTHER STATES

Canadian Press
Berlin, April 25.—Adolf Hitler's National Socialists (Fascists) had become the strongest political party to-day in four of the five German states which participated in yesterday's Diet elections, but they still lacked a clear road to control of any of them. In Bavaria alone did they run slightly behind.

Wilhelm Kube, leader of the National Socialist faction in the Prussian Diet, demanded to-day, however, that the Prussian government resign immediately. "Dr. Braun's successor must be a Nationalist Socialist," he said, "and Adolf Hitler will choose him."

The election, which came as a climax to the preceding two presidential elections in which Hitler's Fascist legions fought bitterly and fruitlessly to place him at the head of the Reich, resulted in three deaths, many other casualties, hundreds of arrests and many minor disorders.

WIN 162 CONSTITUENCIES.
In Prussia, which covers two-thirds of Germany and where the fight was most bitter, because of the theory that "whoever controls Prussia controls the Reich," the Hitler forces garnered 162 seats in comparison with the nine they held heretofore.

This left the Nazis exactly even with the coalition which makes up the present government. The coalition also secured 162 seats.

The consensus to-day was that the result of the Prussian election would probably mean the resignation of Premier Otto Braun and his government, but that he would be likely to continue to hold office, perhaps indefinitely, with a struggle taking place over the formation of a new workable coalition.

COMMAND 263 SEATS
The National Socialists, with the four minor opposition parties, command only 263 out of the 450 seats in the Prussian Diet. They could form a government only if the sixty-seven members of the Centre party, which is that of Chancellor Heinrich Brüning, were to support them.

Under a constitutional amendment recently passed, the rule is that the present government holds over, in any event, until a new one is formed with the support of 51 per cent of the Diet.

The only other party in Prussia to make gains was the Communist, which now has fifty-seven seats compared with its former forty-eight. The Social Democrats (Socialists) were the heavy losers. They dropped from 137 seats to ninety-seven. Even the Catholic Centre lost four seats.

DIVISION OF VOTES
The Hitlerites polled 7,444,000 votes in Prussia; the Socialists 4,251,000; the Centre 3,241,000; Communists 2,920,000; German Nationalists 1,427,000; People's Party 525,000; State Party 291,000. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 2)

SIX KILLED BY TORNADO

Others Reported Lost After Twister Demolishes Homes in Tennessee

High Wind Follows Severe Hail and Electrical Storm in Shelby County

Associated Press
Memphis, Tenn., April 25.—Six persons are known to have perished, several others were reported killed and a score or more were injured in tornadoes that wrought great property damage in portions of Tennessee and Arkansas to-day.

Four communities in Shelby County, Tennessee, were the worst sufferers. Reports thus far show all of the deaths occurred there.

The dead were listed as follows: Mrs. T. J. Dale, sixty-five, farmer's wife, Kerville; Jesse L. Sparks Jr., aged three, Rosemark; Robert Harris, sixty-five, negro, Millington; Dick Spigee, a negro child, Rosemark; Ethel Adams, negro woman, Millington; and unidentified negro, Rosemark.

Several negroes were injured and two cotton gins were demolished by another tornado in the vicinity of Osceola, Arkansas, thus far no deaths have been reported there. Earlier in the day a tornado blew into Sweetwater, Tenn., and did considerable damage to dwellings and business houses. No one was injured.

Yesterday evening terrific winds swept sections of northern Alabama, destroying a church and damaging a county warehouse at Portersville. Roof of a number of houses were blown away.

TORNADO IN AIR
Carrie Durringer, twenty-three, who said she weighed more than 200 pounds, told reporters she was picked up from the kitchen door of her home east of Millington and sent flying through the air for a distance of several hundred feet. She landed in soft mud.

Millington is in the centre of the tornado-struck district. The towns, all on the outskirts of Shelby County, of which Memphis is the county seat, are about nine miles apart. Dr. Wallace Moore and a crew from the county health department went to the scene of the tornado, as did hospital crews and police officers. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

COUPLE HELD IN BABY CASE

Woman Wrote Letter Saying They Knew Lindbergh Baby's Whereabouts

Baby Left at Nursery in California Proves Not to Be Fliers' Son

Associated Press
Downingtown, Pa., April 25.—A man and a woman who were taken into custody for questioning in connection with the Lindbergh abduction case Friday have given conflicting statements as to their whereabouts. The night the baby was stolen; and recently deposited large sums of money in banks in several cities, according to police.

The couple, who described themselves as Albert Lacher and Miss Edith Crebb of Philadelphia, yesterday were charged formally with disorderly conduct and to-day were detained for further examination.

The two were taken into custody after the woman had mailed a letter to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. In the letter, police said, the couple professed to know the baby's whereabouts.

STATE MASSIE IN RIGHT MIND

Third Alienist For Prosecution at Honolulu Trial Declares Accused Man Sane

Honolulu, April 25.—The final effort to prove Lieut. Thomas H. Massie was sane when he fired the shot which killed Joseph Kahahawai was made by the prosecution in the lynching trial to-day by calling to the witness stand Dr. Joseph Catton, San Francisco alienist.

The third expert to testify for the prosecution, Dr. Catton, carried to the chair a typewritten report of his study of the case. After completion of this report yesterday it became known the San Francisco alienist, like the two preceding him, had concluded Lieut. Massie was sane at the time of the tragedy.

JAIL HUNDREDS AT NEW DELHI

Delegates to All-India Nationalist Congress Not Allowed to Meet

Yesterday's Arrests, Numbering 369, Followed Earlier Arrests, Totaling Over 300

New Delhi, India, April 25.—The government curbed the Indian Nationalists yesterday by arresting 369 delegates and spectators who were attempting to hold the annual convention of the all-India Nationalist Congress.

More than 300 others had been arrested Friday and Saturday, including Mrs. Sarojini Naidu, acting president of the congress. She later was sentenced to a year in jail.

U.S. Senate Committee Sends Sub-committee and Experts to New York Exchange

Washington, April 25.—The United States Senate banking committee to-day ordered a full investigation of the stock market and determined to send investigators to New York.

At a lengthy executive session the committee agreed to appoint a sub-committee and to employ additional counsel and investigators necessary to make the study in New York.

The committee is determined to find out the inside operations of the gigantic pools in stocks which operated on the "bull" side in the 1929 boom and on the "bear" side since the price collapse.

GREECE GOES OFF GOLD STANDARD

Athens, Greece, April 25.—The cabinet voted to-day to suspend the gold standard.

FRENCH ELECTION CAMPAIGN SWINGS INTO FINAL WEEK

Paris, April 25.—The political prophets were computing and calculating to-day as the French general election campaign entered its final week. The first of the two ballots will be held Sunday, and 3,400 candidates are in the list in the 615 constituencies—nearly 800 of them contesting the fifty-nine seats in the Seine area, including Paris. The second day of voting will be May 6.

In recent years the French political pendulum has swung with surprising regularity. Following the war it swung to the right, to the left in 1924, to the right again in 1928. Will it swing left again in May?

COALITION OUTLOOK
The forecast appearing to reprieve widest attention is that both the Radical-Socialists and the more leftist Socialists are likely to make gains, but that their gains will be insufficient to give the parties of the left complete control of the new Chamber of Deputies. A government of either the right or the left will still be dependent on the co-operation of the general groups and the independents for its majority, it is believed.

The French political meetings are stormy ones and such implements of popular rule as rotten eggs, over-ripe tomatoes and wooden benches are frequently thrown about.

RAIN ABATES ON PRAIRIES

Though Snow Still Falls at Calgary, Edmonton, Regina Report Improvement

In Some Spots Roads Are Impassable; Crops Get One of Finest Starts in Years

Canadian Press
Edmonton, April 25.—Following almost continuous rainfall here for a week, there were indications of clearing weather here to-day. Roads are impassable and work on the land is out of the question for some time, but no storm damage has been reported in the district of Edmonton.

A total of 1.21 inches of rain has fallen since last Tuesday, breaking all records for a similar period in the last five years in the district.

IN SASKATCHEWAN
Regina, April 25.—Though the sun broke through the clouds this morning, rain fell at intervals over the week-end in southern Saskatchewan. Practically every point in the south reported additional moisture. The mercury fell below freezing yesterday evening.

IN MOOSE JAW DISTRICT
Moose Jaw, Sask., April 25.—With the day cleared of the heavily laden clouds and the thermometer close to the freezing point, indications here to-day were that the wet spell was over. Rain fell steadily though lightly from about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Calgary, April 25.—Weather-worried folk in southern Alberta to-day were peering into the clouds, wondering what it was all about as the fall of rain and snow that started last Wednesday continued to soak the countryside. Old-timers struggled to recall such lengthy precipitation and farmers in some sections were beginning to fear it would seriously retard seeding operations.

To-day a fine thin snow was falling in the Calgary district while other central and southern areas reported rain. The murky weather still gripped the Lethbridge district as rain fell on an already dripping countryside. Abundant moisture has been received by the wheat farmers who have seldom in the last ten years had such a start for their crops. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

LONDON RAISES BIG INDIA LOAN

Canadian Press
London, April 25.—A loan of £10,000,000 for the Government of India was underwritten in London to-day in 5 per cent bonds to be issued at a price of 95. Of the amount, a sum of £6,000,000 will be used to meet that amount in 6 per cent bonds maturing in June.

RELIEF MEN ARE LIABLE

Even if a man is on relief, he must keep up interest and taxes if he wants to come under the mortgage moratorium, Mr. Justice Murphy ruled in the Supreme Court to-day when Norman Whittaker and P. J. Sinnott, as counsel, had before the court the case of a man, now workless, who had bought a $1,600 house and paid only $400 on it.

"But the man, besides being unemployed, is in hospital with tuberculosis and has five children, all young," said Mr. Sinnott.

"I can't help that, as I can only go on the law, which says the man must keep up interest and taxes," said Mr. Justice.

Mr. Sinnott doubted whether, under the conditions, the man could raise the $11.60 due as interest now, but the judge adjourned the case for a week to see whether the lawyers could not find a way of fixing things up.

CANADA'S DUTY ON BUTTER FIVE CENTS

Reported Some of This Country's Manufactures Will Be Given Preference By New Zealand

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 25.—The new trade agreement between Canada and New Zealand will be tabled in the Commons to-morrow evening between 9 and 10 o'clock. This was announced this afternoon by Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Observing the government had placed on the order paper notice of a bill respecting the new agreement, Hon. W. J. Mackenzie King, Opposition leader, expressed regret the government had not tabled the agreement before the close of the budget debate.

Mr. Stevens explained the new agreement would be tabled simultaneously here and in New Zealand. "It will also be synchronized with the close of the budget debate," remarked Mr. King, and members laughed.

The signing of the treaty was reported in a Canadian Press dispatch from Ottawa yesterday evening which read as follows:

Ottawa, April 24.—The Canadian and New Zealand trade agreement, it is reported, have signed a trade agreement. The pact was executed on behalf of the two countries during the week-end, it is understood.

The agreement, it is understood, gives Canada considerable concessions under the British preference to exports of this country, largely manufactured goods. The duty on butter coming into Canada from New Zealand, it is reported, will be five cents a pound—a rate similar to the duty on Australian butter. Imports of New Zealand wool will likely be on the free list under the British preference.

The agreement is expected to be tabled in the Commons this session with a request for parliamentary approval.

HISTORY OF TRADE
In May, 1925, Canada and Australia entered into a trade agreement. Provisions of the treaty were extended shortly afterwards to New Zealand by order-in-council. On May 1, 1930, notice was given to New Zealand that this arrangement would be cancelled on November 1 of that year.

Negotiations toward a trade treaty have been under way for some time between Canada and New Zealand. In December last, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Hon. Downie Stewart, New Zealand Minister of Customs, conferred in Honolulu on the subject.

Fascists Gain In Austrian Elections

Associated Press
Vienna, April 25.—The National Socialist Party (Fascist) scored wide-spread heavy gains in yesterday's elections in Austria's provinces, including Vienna, but the control remains with the Socialists and Christian Socialists.

To returns show the Pan-German Party, supporter of former Chancellor Johann Schober's foreign policy, was virtually annihilated.

The Socialists remain dominant in Salzburg and Lower Austria. In Carinthia and Styria the general trend of communal elections shows the Socialists retaining their strength, while the Pan-Germans lost and the National Socialists gained.

BUDGET VOTE TO-MORROW

Prorogation at Ottawa May Not Come Till Near Middle of May

Liberals Want Information on Some of Estimates; Radio Probabilities

Ottawa, April 25.—The closing of the budget debate in the commons probably to-morrow and the opening of the debate in the Senate Wednesday on the report of the committee which investigated the relations of certain senators to the Beaudry project will enliven proceedings on Parliament Hill this week.
Indications to-day gave the impression that prorogation may not come before three weeks. Some of the estimates still to be dealt with are said to be due for close examination by the opposition and the Liberal and U.P.A. members will doubtless wish to discuss the approaching Imperial Economic Conference when that estimate is before the house.
RADIO DEBATE
The impetus grows that the report of the radio committee, expected this week, will be followed by some direct action on the part of the government. Such action will doubtless be controversial and may further put off the closing of the session.
The royal commission on transportation will resume its meetings in Ottawa on May 2, when all the members will be present. Lord Ashfield, a member, who was absent from the last meeting, will arrive from London in time for the next sitting. During the last two weeks the facts secured while the commission was gathering information has been analyzed, but it will probably be some time before a report will be ready for submission to parliament.
RELIEF DEBATE
The government will probably lay before parliament its plans for dealing with unemployment shortly after the budget has been disposed of and even if the ministry once more asks for a blank cheque to deal with the situation, it is expected the Liberals will again state their position in opposition to such procedure, but will not conduct an extended fight.
The cabinet secured the views of the provincial governments in regard to concentrating on direct unemployment relief rather than public works in a conference held during the Easter recess.

STATEMENT BY BENNETT
Ottawa, April 25.—A denial by Premier Bennett that the government's policy on radio was ever the subject of discussion at a Conservative Party caucus, and a statement that the government would under no circumstances attempt to influence the report of the committee on radio, were made during the first few minutes of the commons sitting this afternoon.
The matter arose when Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, opposition leader, asked the Prime Minister if it was the intention of the government to bring down legislation in respect to radio at the present session of Parliament.
Until the committee on radio, formed by the government, had made its report, the government would not be in a position to make any statement on the subject, nor would he be in a position to make any statement on the subject, Premier Bennett replied.
While it was unusual to discuss any matters which had come up at caucus, Bennett said he felt he should seize the opportunity to state newspaper reports that this matter had been discussed when the Conservatives last met in caucus were incorrect.

TRY TO CLASSIFY DEAD SEA BEAST

Miami, Fla., April 25.—Natural historians here are puzzled over the classification of a strange sea beast whose body was found on the beach at upper Matecumbe Key, south of Miami.
James E. Carey, near whose home the carcass was found, described it as five feet long, with an estimated weight of seventy-five pounds. A small head surmounted a thick body that ended in a blunt tail. The body was covered with reddish-brown hair, about four inches long, except for the centre of the back, where a mane of coarse white hair, resembling pig bristles, was found.
The beast's teeth were long, triangular and set in double rows.
Carey buried the body, but it was disinterred by Judge E. R. Lowe, who preserved the head bones and some of the beast's hair for submission to experts in search of classification.

The National Socialists led also in the less important state Diet elections in Wurttemberg, Hamburg and Anhalt. In Bavaria they ran neck and neck with the Bavarian People's Party for first place, losing out by only 1,000 votes.
BAVARIAN LINE-UP
The 128 seats in the Bavarian Diet were reported as follows: Bavarian People's Party 45; National Socialists 43; Social Democrats 20; Farmers 9; Communists 8, and German Nationalists 3.
The final returns distributed the votes in four of the states as follows: Wurttemberg—National Socialists 328,000; Social Democrats 208,000; Centre 254,000; Communists 116,000.
Hamburg—National Socialists 234,000; Social Democrats 226,000; Communists 119,000; State's Party 84,000; German Nationalists 32,000; People's Party 24,000; Centre 10,000; Economic Party 5,000, and Christian Social 5,000.

STATEMENT BY HITLER
Munich, Germany, April 25.—Adolf Hitler, National Socialist leader, issued a statement from his headquarters here to-day thanking his party workers for their efforts in the campaign that preceded yesterday's Diet elections and declaring the elections showed undeniably that the Nazis was the strongest party in Germany.
"Our success was not due to clever tactics," he said, "but to relentless toil. What the propaganda department achieved in a few brief weeks is unprecedented."
Thanking the storm troops with an overflowing heart for their loyalty, he added:
"Our task is not to rest a minute, but to renew the fight for the independence of Germany."

INQUIRE ABOUT CANADIAN DUTY

Canadian Press
London, April 25.—Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Dominions Secretary, promised Sir Wilfrid Sudgen, Conservative, in the Commons this afternoon that he would communicate with the Canadian authorities in regard to the special Canadian duty on British goods imposed in consequence of the depreciation in the pound sterling. Sir Wilfrid asked whether the same measure applied to other parts of the Empire whose currencies were depreciated, and the minister said he would make inquiries as the information was not available in London.

GALLIPOLI IS COMMEMORATED

Australia and New Zealand Pay Tribute to Heroes of Seventeen Years Ago

Melbourne, Australia, April 25.—It is seventeen years since the glorious but costly storming of Gallipoli on April 25, 1915, by the Australian and New Zealand (Anzac) division with the 25th marines and naval brigades, but the memory of that day is vivid as ever in the Commonwealth. In the lonely thousands of tributes were paid to the memory of those who fell, and city cenotaphs were massed high with floral wreaths.
The King sent a message of remembrance to Australia through Governor-General Sir Isaac Isaacs, to which the Governor-General replied with thanks on behalf of the people.

Wellington, N.Z., April 25.—The seventeenth anniversary of Gallipoli was celebrated in New Zealand to-day with parades of ex-service men, territorial and cadets. Religious and memorial services were held throughout the country and wreaths were laid on war memorials and on the graves in the soldiers' cemeteries.
The war memorial caisson at Wellington was dedicated in the presence of Lord Bledisloe, Governor-General, Premier Forbes and members of the cabinet. A large naval detachment and army and air force, with church dignitaries, were present.

C. D. Shelton, Rosemark merchant, said several persons had been injured there, but he could not give their names. Two of them were brought to a hospital here.
Others reports said at least two had been killed at Rosemark. Most of the injured were taken to Brunswick for treatment.
A dozen homes in and around Rosemark and Millington were demolished, the reports said.
Newspapermen who visited the town of Millington said about a dozen negroes were injured there and that although houses and other buildings were wrecked, there had been no deaths there. The reporters hurried on a survey at the other towns reported hit.

MILLS DESTROYED

Blytheville, Ark., April 25.—A tornado struck in the vicinity of Osceola, eighteen miles north of here, to-day, injuring several negroes and demolishing two cotton gins.
The tornado, followed a severe hail, wind and electrical storm yesterday evening that uprooted trees and broke windows in houses. Thus far no deaths have been reported in this community.

RAIN ABATES ON PRAIRIES

The men on the land to-day were searching the sky for the sun, hoping for a cessation of the downpour to permit the ground to regain a condition suitable for seeding work. The storm, however, showed no signs of abating.
Erasmus reported a heavy down-fall over the week-end. Red Deer received a drenching and points between Calgary and the international boundary reported precipitation. Inundated with snow by last week's blizzard, that wrecked wire communications, roads to-day carried many pools of water.
If the storm subsides shortly and allows work on the land to continue, a real old-time bumper crop is expected.

HEAVY IN SOUTH

Southern Alberta received the heaviest April precipitation since 1929 as the result of the storm. A total of 2.34 inches fell since last Wednesday, according to the observatory records at Lethbridge.

Lambing camps on the sheep ranges suffered from the storm, but no serious losses were reported.

The transaction is being effected through exchanges of securities and involves no new financing.
Canadian International Paper will control a daily capacity of more than 2,800 tons of newsprint from four mills. Canadian International's plants are at Gaitheau and Three Rivers, Que., while its subsidiaries' mills are at Dalhousie, N.B., and Corner Brook, Nfld.

FATHER KILLED BY YOUNG SON

Phoenix, Ariz., April 25.—Bobby Merrill, sought for killing his father, and wounding his mother and brother, at the family home in Gilbert yesterday evening was found by sheriff's deputies to-day, loitering in the stock yards here.

The thirteen-year-old boy was located after he had been sought by posses of mounted officers and citizens to-day in the sparsely settled desert country lying between here and the Mexican border.
The youth late yesterday evening at Gilbert, southeast of here, shot and killed his father and wounded his mother and younger brother, then like most of the outlaws the western country has known, he quickly saddled his pony and galloped away into the wild cactus-studded country.
"Look out," the youth shouted and started firing, his mother said. She was wounded in the neck. The father, R. W. Merrill, forty, former mayor of Gilbert, fell with a bullet through his heart. An eleven-year-old brother, Charles, was wounded in the hip.
Neighbors, hearing the pistol shots, rushed to the home. Bobby's horse was heard to gallop from the corral as they entered the house. The mother told Lloyd J. Andrews, county attorney, that the boy had never been given the family any trouble. She said the boy had gone to bed yesterday evening at his usual time, and had appeared with the pistol in the living room this morning.
"The boy is apparently raging mad. He just started shooting his family," said Andrews.

ROOSEVELT TESTS IN TWO STATES

Washington, April 25.—Militantly and clamorously the Roosevelt and Smith legions are carrying the fight for delegates into Pennsylvania and Massachusetts for the primaries to-morrow which may be the turning point in the Democratic scramble for the presidential nomination.
The total of 112 delegates will be at stake in the Pennsylvania and Massachusetts Democratic primaries. Both Roosevelt and Smith forces claim a majority of these, the former looking for from fifty to seventy of the Keystone State's seventy-six, and the latter basing their hopes primarily on winning Massachusetts' entire thirty-six, with enough of the Pennsylvania delegates to furnish a majority.
With Porto Rico's vote unattached delegates claimed for him over the week-end, the New York governor now has 261 pledged and claimed votes in the national convention, with 770 needed to win. Smith has yet to gain a delegate.

Maud Allen Of Exotic Fame To Dance Again

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times
London.—When the King and Queen visited Dulwich Hospital, one of those "presented" to Their Majesties was a baby girl born only three hours previously.
They say more men are wearing stiff collars. A new factory has just been built specially to make them.
That first novel written by Sir Ronald Ross in 1889, when he was just an obscure surgeon in the Indian Medical Service, is going to be republished. It is called "The Child of the Ocean."
Miss Maud Allan, who took London by storm with her exotic undressed dances twenty-four years ago, is to dance again in the new Cochran show "The Miracle." She was born in Canada, studied music in Berlin. Cochran said that he spent all last Sunday watching the rehearsals of this show.

Separate Grade For Garnet Wheat

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 25.—Nothing that has happened since the Canadian Millers' Association submitted its opinion in connection with the milling qualities of Garnet wheat has had the effect of changing that opinion, C. H. Short, president of that organization, told the commons agriculture committee to-day. In 1929 the association advised the government that tests had disclosed Garnet "to be a much less desirable wheat than Marquis" and it urged that, on this account, Garnet be graded separately. To this point of view the association still adhered, said Mr. Short.
He assured the committee that if a separate grade were established for that variety, the Canadian millers "would certainly employ it."

I.O.O.F. PARADE IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, April 25.—Attended by 1,200 members of the order from Greater Vancouver, New Westminster and Washington State, the 113th anniversary of the organization of Independent Order of Odd Fellows was observed in First Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon. More than 600 participated in the march from headquarters to the church and the march was led by patriarch militants, Canadian, Vancouver No. 1 and Canton New Westminster No. 4 in their picturesque uniforms. Rev. W. C. Smalley of Edmonton, grand chaplain of Southern Grand Lodge, was the anniversary preacher.

IS RELEASED A THIRD TIME

Capt. W. N. Lancaster, Pilot, Cleared By Miami Police of Two Charges

Miami, Fla., April 25.—Capt. W. N. Lancaster, in custody three times since Thursday as a result of the fatal shooting of his room mate, Hader Clarke, twenty-six-year-old author, and a federal agents' inquiry into an alleged smuggling project, was released again yesterday evening.
Clarke, who was believed to have shot himself, was the fiancé of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, noted Australian filer, in whose home the two men were sharing a room when the shooting was done. Capt. Lancaster had piloted Mrs. Keith-Miller on a number of her flights.
Capt. Lancaster was arrested by federal officers Saturday evening on his release from jail with Mrs. Keith-Miller in the afternoon in connection with the Clarke case, but was freed after several hours, questioning. He was taken back to the county jail shortly after midnight and questioned all yesterday before his release in the evening.

NARCOTIC ALLEGATION
Federal agents said Capt. Lancaster had been questioned at length about an alleged conspiracy to smuggle narcotics from Mexico into the United States at Nogales, Ariz., but expressed their conviction he was not a party to a conspiracy.
Capt. Lancaster and Mrs. Keith-Miller were arrested after they had reported to police that Clarke, who was writing the Australian woman filer's life story, had shot himself in the bedroom and Lancaster occupied Clarke died eight hours later.

French Writer Sees Changes in Germany

Associated Press
Paris, April 25.—Copious space and important position was given to the reports of yesterday's German Diet elections in Paris newspapers to-day, but the editorial comment was little and reserved.
Perinax, in The Echo de Paris, said it was useless to speculate on the consequences of the election, but he added: "The fact remains that the 'Germany' that was 'born' at Weimar (the Republic) is disappearing a little more each day."

FALLING TREE INJURES FARMER

Quebec, B.C., April 25.—Having been struck on the head by a falling tree, Frank List, aged Dragon Lake farmer, one of the most successful alfalfa raisers in the district, was in the hospital here to-day suffering from severe concussion. He has a six-inch scalp wound. The tree, a six-inch green poplar, was felled by a youth employed at building a brush fence on the outskirts of Luss.
A daughter, Mrs. W. C. Buchty, who is a graduate nurse, is en route from Kansas City, Mo., by airplane to attend her father.

THEATRE LIKE JAM FACTORY

Critics Condemn Design of Shakespeare Memorial at Stratford-on-Avon

Prince of Wales in Address Says Bard Above All Things Englishman

By Thomas T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Writer

Stratford-on-Avon, Eng., April 25.—A considerable controversy was in progress to-day regarding the architectural merits of the new $1,000,000 Shakespeare Memorial Theatre which the Prince of Wales opened Saturday. Many of Stratford's own most loyal citizens likened the building to a jam factory, while others described the severe brick edifice as resembling a combination factory and barracks. Most critics in the past have praised the bold buildings designed by Miss Elizabeth Scott, the memorial architect, but numerous persons have written lately to newspapers protesting the "hideous memorial" is an insult to the memory of the Bard of Avon. The Prince, in his opening speech Saturday, abstained from any allusion to the spectacle the building presents from the far side of the slow-moving Avon, where he landed his airplane before attending the ceremony, or as approached from the town.

OUT OF KEEPING

Some of those who attended the opening held the very modern building with its hard, straight lines was out of keeping with the traditional association of Shakespeare with half-timbered and historic buildings of the theatre, however, maintained it would not be unhealthy for inhabitants and pilgrims to be weaned of certain traditions, and to see the works of Stratford's immortal townsmen presented under modern architectural surroundings.

Too long these upholders of new style said, has Stratford been under the spell of what is largely a false old-world atmosphere, which has produced a "ye olde ten shoppes" in every street and which offers scenery, door-knockers and poker heads, new-made at Birmingham, every few yards. The interior of the new building is in keeping with the exterior. The decorations are modern and in the style to which Britishers have become accustomed through the rebuilding of restaurants and the erection of new theatres. The seats are the last word in comfort.

Stratford made it a whole-day celebration, awakening to the sound of church bells at daybreak, banners were hung on the walls of houses and other buildings and garlands of flowers were stretched across the streets. There were Maypole and Morris dancing and processions of all sorts. Seventy nations were represented at

ATTACKS ON HOLY ROLLERS

Mounted Police Called to Restore Order at Martin's River, N.S.

Canadian Press

Mahone Bay, N.S., April 25.—Violence caused by the conflict of differing religious creeds has broken out in the hitherto quiet country community of Martin's River. Yesterday evening a detachment of Royal Canadian Mounted Police patrolled roads of the district to prevent outbreaks of rioting such as inflamed the settlement Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Animosity of a group of men toward the Pentecostal Society, or Holy Rollers, is blamed for the stabbing of one man, the partial demolition of two houses, the stoning of a number of worshippers and minor injuries to several, with consequent summoning of twenty-five rioters to appear in court. The trouble started on Thursday evening when a group of the Pentecostals, headed for the home of a communicant to hold service, was pelted with mud and stones. It continued on Friday when a free-for-all battle was staged, in which Wilbert Zwicker was stabbed in the arm by an unknown assailant. The climax came Saturday evening, when the home of Albert Langille, where a service was being held, was stoned by a mob of 100. The outbreak, starting at 8 Sunday morning when mounted police arrived.

BISHOP MAKES APPEAL FOR AID

Canadian Press

Montreal, April 25.—"We have our backs against the wall, but we are not flat on our backs," said Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix, Bishop of Caledonia, B.C., in an address here Sunday. He painted a picture of distress in his far-western diocese—salaries and staffs slashed 40 per cent, fishermen refusing to use their boats because the price of the catches would not pay for the necessary gasoline, an Indian population almost entirely dependent on government relief—and appealed for support from the more favored congregations of Eastern Canada.

His diocese was the second largest of the Canadian Anglican Church, the bishop said. It was potentially of great wealth, but at present lacked both population and development. The church was fighting both material and spiritual odds and needed every form of support.

"The trials and tribulations we are going through will strengthen our power," he concluded. "People have been brought to a nearer realization of God, and the church was materially aided in this because it has continued its support despite extraordinary difficulties."

TO STATE VIEWS AT CONFERENCE

Regina, April 25.—Saskatchewan Wheat Pool directors are behind the plans for placing prairie agricultural views before the Empire Economic Conference at Ottawa in July.

Full accord with these plans of the recently-organized co-operative conference of Saskatchewan agricultural interests was expressed at the directors' meeting of the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool, concluded Saturday.

Another meeting of the Saskatchewan Co-operative representatives will be held to prepare for the prairie inter-provincial conference on the same subject, to be held here June 8. A proposal that Manitoba and Alberta co-operatives also hold meetings prior to June 8 to consider their suggestions has been made.

LORD IRWIN IS ONTARIO VISITOR

Former Viceroy of India Is to Deliver Lecture in Toronto

Canadian Press

Quebec, April 25.—Baron Irwin, former Viceroy of India, arrived here over the week-end to deliver a Massey Foundation lecture in Toronto this week. He left for Port Hope, Ont., where he will be the guest of Hon. Vincent Massey until tomorrow.

Regarding the forthcoming Imperial Conference at Ottawa, he said: "If we go into these meetings trying to see what we can contribute rather than what each can get out of them, we are bound to come closer to achievement."

"The British Government in India during the last few years has been pursuing a double policy," Lord Irwin said, "on the one hand a policy of preparation to go forward with constitutional reform, which resulted in the calling together of those interested to the council table, but on the other hand the government felt bound to make it no less plain that it must resist a challenge of an unconstitutional form of direct action against what is the foundation of all government, respect for law."

"Had I been there now doubtless I would have had to do the same," he said, referring to the imprisonment of Gandhi and other developments. Referring to Lord Willingdon, his successor as Viceroy of India, Lord Irwin said: "You in Canada know him and of course he has had far more experience in India than I."

Great Britain, Lord Irwin thought, was showing considerable improvement in its employment figures.

WINDS SMASHED BY BOLD THIEVES

Canadian Press

Vancouver, April 25.—Window-smashing thieves were successful in looting two stores early Sunday morning, but failed in an attempt to loot a third. One man was arrested in connection with the robberies. Mrs. C. Harkness of Southland's Dry Goods Store, 5555 Dunbar Street, who sleeps in quarters at the rear of her store, was awakened by a crash of glass and found three men had broken a window in the store. On being discovered, the men fled, two of them leaving their overcoats behind. Later, Detectives A. Murray and J. L. McLeish arrested a man of no fixed address and charged him with breaking and entering in connection with the case.

Around at 2:45 a.m. G. R. Babbs, manager, who resides on the premises of the Kitano Drug Co. at 2200 Cornhill Street, found three men running from the place. They carried with them tobacco to the value of $50 and escaped in an automobile.

Breaking into the A. and C. Grocery at 2995 Granville Street, by smashing a window, thieves carried off a large quantity of cigarettes and tobacco.

Provision store medals and $10 in cash from the home of J. P. Griffiths, 4511 Thirteenth Avenue.

Wille O. Kokko, 656 East Pender Street, slept Saturday night, a prowler entered his room through a window and stole a watch and an alarm clock. The strong-box stolen by safecrackers who blew open the vault of the Vancouver Exhibition Association at Hastings Park Saturday morning was recovered Sunday, but the money it contained, $350, was missing. The box was found on the Hastings Park Golf Course by Douglas McAlpine, thirteen, of 2084 East Pender Street, who reported to the police. It was discovered the lock of the box had been broken. Papers in the box were intact.

OTTAWA SCENE OF $90,000 FIRE

Ottawa, April 25.—Engulfing uptown Ottawa in dense smoke, fire destroyed two three-story government-owned buildings on Wellington Street late yesterday. The loss is estimated at $90,000. Two fire-fighters were slightly injured.

THIEVES ESCAPE

Vancouver, April 25.—Dan Minichello, 567 Union Street, saved his automobile from being stolen at 8 a.m. Sunday, but was unsuccessful in his efforts to capture three men who had endeavored to steal it. He saw the men take the car from his home and obtained another car and went in pursuit. When he overhauled the stolen car three men jumped out of it and escaped.

DYNAMITERS WRECK PIPELINE

Irrigation System Near Robson, B.C., Temporarily Put Out of Commission

Canadian Press

Nelson, B.C., April 25.—Reports current in Nelson over the week-end that the Robson irrigation district's flume had been dynamited in the vicinity of the dam were confirmed from Robson yesterday evening by a resident over the long-distance telephone. The outrage is assumed to have been carried out some time during Friday night, the drying up of a new Doukhobor settlement's flume from the same dam Saturday leading to an investigation, which disclosed what had happened.

The dynamite or dynamiters blew up a five-foot section of the Robson wood-stave pipe, which is a foot in diameter, also destroying the valve, so water flowed freely into the hole caused by the explosion, filling it, and as freely flowed into the unobstructed Robson pipe, thus lowering the water in the reservoir to below the intake of the upper pipe.

Steps to repair the Robson pipeline were taken to-day. All that was left intact of the five-foot section destroyed was the wire binding around the pipe.

A piece of burned fuse found at the site of the crime indicated the destruction was accomplished by means of dynamite or blasting powder.

This outrage makes the fifth outrage in areas contiguous to Doukhobor settlements in seven days, four of them involving bombs and the fifth being a case of tampering with the Canadian Pacific track at Fisherman.

ONLY HUNDRED MILLION MORE

Farm Board Chairman Still Believes Spending Can "Grease" Prosperity

Washington, April 25.—A recommendation that the rough spots of international trade be greased with a $100,000,000 fund which would finance foreign sales of wheat and cotton was urged by Chairman J. C. Stone of the United States Farm Board.

In a letter to Chairman McNary of the Senate agriculture committee he urged enactment of a resolution to devote that amount of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds to such a purpose.

The board believes, Stone said, that "controlled foreign sales on credit would be a benefit to the domestic and foreign markets in wheat," and also increase consumption of United States cotton.

Stone's endorsement follows the suggestion of Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde that $100,000,000 of the $200,000,000 voted in the Reconstruction Finance Corporation act for crop loans be used for this purpose.

In his letter, Stone said, "a number of foreign countries are in the market for American wheat. Their buying power is limited by their inability to pay cash or furnish securities acceptable in the usual financing of export sales."

Germany is ready to buy 10,000,000 or 15,000,000 bushels of wheat if credit is arranged. China which bought 15,000,000 bushels last fall has been mentioned as a potential purchaser of more than 50,000,000.

The board itself cannot extend credit because of the lean conditions of its treasury.

He is survived by two sons and two daughters, the latter being Mrs. Bruce Abel, Vancouver, and Mrs. Harry Keough, Saskatoon.

PENSIONS ACT INQUIRY SOON

Canadian Press

Ottawa, April 25.—Establishment of a joint committee, one section of which will be appointed by the government and the other by the associated veterans' organizations, has been decided on by the government to inquire into the weaknesses of the present Pensions Act and to cover what amendments may be necessary. This emerged Saturday from the conference between the cabinet and representatives of the associated veterans.

The committee will report to the government at the conclusion of its investigations and necessary legislation will be placed before Parliament at the next session. In the interim every effort will be made by the government to improve the administration of the act and to expedite decisions being made.

The foregoing conclusions were incorporated in an exchange of letters between Hon. Murray MacLaren, Minister of Pensions, and Major John S. Roper, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion, over the week-end.

While no official statement in that connection has been issued by the associated veterans, it is understood the ex-soldiers' representatives will be Col. W. C. H. Wood, Quebec, president of the Army and Navy Veterans of Canada, and Capt. E. C. Baker, M.C. of the Sir Arthur C. Pearson Club for Blind Soldiers and Sailors; Brigadier-General Alex. Ross, Yorkton, Sask., vice-president of the Canadian Legion; J. B. Bowler, general secretary of the Canadian Legion, and Major Roper, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion.

NEW NARCOTIC HABIT CURE

Scientists Announce Success at Academy Meeting in Washington

Washington, April 25.—A treatment which its discoverers believe will cure any narcotic drug addict who has no complicating illness and who wants to be cured was reported to-day to the Academy of Sciences.

It consists essentially of treating the addict with chemicals that counteract the effects of the drug on his system. The announcement was the first public indication that the treatment, already used successfully in experiments, could be applied to addicts in general. It was made at the academy's annual meeting by Dr. Wilder D. Bancroft, Dr. R. S. Gussell and J. E. Rutledge Jr. of Cornell University.

"From experiments on six patients," they said, "we believe it is possible to cure any narcotic drug addict who is not tuberculous, who does not have a weak heart, who does not suffer from a pain-producing disease and who really wants to be cured."

Dr. Bancroft and his co-workers discovered that morphine thickens or coagulates the proteins in the cells. This effect persists after the influence of a dose of the narcotic wears off, causing the craving for another and the gradual formation of the habit.

They found that sodium chondrate acts as an antidote and thins out the thickened proteins again, doing away with the craving and so ending the habit.

Experiments with the Jerusalem artichoke have produced sweeter sugar than is yielded by either sugar beet or cane.

FIRE DESTROYS MUCH PULPWOOD

Campbellford, Ont., April 25.—Smouldering ruins were all that remained of more than 8,000 cords of pulpwood at the Campbellford Hydro-Electric Commission pulp mill following a spectacular blaze which raged for more than twelve hours and caused $125,000 damage. Fire-fighting equipment from Peterboro was summoned before the fire was brought under control early Sunday morning.

HITLER'S ROUND

IF THERE IS ANYTHING IN THE theory that "whoever controls Prussia controls the Reich," Germany's Fascist chieftain, Adolf Hitler, is to-day nearer a realization of that power than would have been considered possible twelve months ago, or even after the presidential election of April 10, when President Paul von Hindenburg was victorious in the run-off contest by a very substantial margin.

There are 450 members in the Prussian Diet, one representative for every 50,000 inhabitants, and the Hitlerites have increased their contingent of nine in the old Parliament to no fewer than 162 in the new. If their leader shall be given the support of the members of the four minor opposition parties—representatives of nine parties have been elected—his party will be able to command 203 votes. The Fascists, therefore, will constitute the largest single political faction in the key state, which comprises practically two-thirds of Germany, the Social Democrats trailing second with ninety-three, and the Centrists, Chancellor Brüning's party, third with sixty-seven, or ten more than the Communists—the latter, by the way, having increased their numbers by eleven.

The Premier of Prussia is Otto Braun, who succeeded Adam Stegerwald in 1921 after the latter had held office as Prime Minister for less than a year. It is indicated that the government may resign but immediately embark upon the job of forming a workable coalition, since a bill passed by the Diet a few days ago requires a new administration to command fifty-one per cent of the votes; and as it is considered that Hitler would not be able to muster a following of more than 203, Herr Braun no doubt will meet the new Diet as its leader. At best, however, he will be confronted with a difficult task. While the Communists hate the Fascists, there is the prospect that they might be inclined to use their balance of power and vote with the Hitlerites on some vital issue, if only to make confusion worse confounded. Politics makes strange bedfellows at times.

As well as in Prussia, the Fascists now command the largest single following in the Diets of the states of Hamburg, Anhalt, and Württemberg, Bavaria alone leaving them slightly behind. In none, however, will they be able to exercise control. It is noteworthy in the contest in Prussia that Hitler's men polled almost as many as the former dominant parties, the Social Democrats and the Centrists, combined, the Fascist total being 7,444,000, with the Social Democrats 4,251,000, and the Centrists 3,241,000. No matter how this development may be considered, therefore, the fact remains that the moderate parties have received a stunning blow; the forces of radicalism, if the results of the five contests mean anything at all, obviously are gaining very substantial ground.

Hitlerite victories in the states—to all intents and purposes they are victories—will naturally add to the difficulties of the government of Chancellor Brüning and to those of the newly-elected President of the Reich. It is true, of course, that as far as the parliamentary administrations of the five states are concerned, the Fascist party will not be able to assume control. But the central government at Berlin in recent months has passed a number of decrees which, more or less, have had for their object the suppression of Fascist activities. But yesterday's striking vote, especially in Prussia, would seem to be clear proof, for the good or evil of the German Republic, that Hitlerism and all the extremism for which it stands is no longer a section of public thought to be dealt with by such forms of force as have been employed recently. The Fascist leader is able to tell the President and the Chancellor that he is making headway by constitutional means. This is a factor in the new situation which can not be ignored.

While the political outlook in Germany from the domestic standpoint has undergone such a revolutionary change—a matter of first concern to that country itself—it follows that yesterday's events will have a direct bearing upon European politics generally. As pointed out in these columns on Saturday, the prediction that next Sunday's general elections in France are likely to result in the overthrow of the present Conservative administration headed by M. Tardieu possibly will have to be modified in the light of the imposing gains of the Hitlerites. The German Fascist leader makes no bones about his hatred of France and his intention figuratively to tear up the Treaty of Versailles and all it has imposed and still imposes on his country. It is the consequence of such action that naturally interests Europe—and the whole world as well, for that matter—in Hitler's ascendancy.

A SIMPLE ECONOMIC TRUTH

ALTHOUGH MOST COUNTRIES ought to have realized by this time that to sell they also must buy, Sweden perhaps is using the most novel method of impressing the fact upon the public mind. Recently that country shipped 11,000 pounds of butter to the United States, and around each package the following printed message appeared: "We are sending this butter to balance, if possible, the large American exports to Sweden. American automobiles and Scandinavian butter are both world famous, but we can not continue to purchase your automobiles unless you purchase our merchandise."

If a government sets out to wage war against imports, as the present administration at Ottawa has done, it should be understood that it amounts to warfare against trade in general—against exports as well as imports. And since we have quoted Sweden's message to the United States in respect of butter, we can point to what has happened to Canada's trade with New Zealand. We stopped buying the southern Dominion's butter, and she stopped buying our automobiles and other manufactured products. We are still waiting for news of a new treaty to restore a trade that two years ago was worth $36,000,000, but has now dropped to one-seventh of that total.

THE MUSICAL FESTIVAL

IT IS ESTIMATED THAT SOME FIVE thousand persons will be actively associated with the competitions which will open to-morrow under the auspices of the Victoria Musical Festival Association, and will continue for the remainder of the week. There are 750 entries, a list which exceeds the number recorded last year. This will be our sixth annual festival and all indications point to a successful event. The festival committee has been tireless in its preparation, which has involved a great amount of work, and it is to be hoped that the public will show its appreciation of what has been done by generous patronage.

The festival is a community enterprise designed to further the musical interest of the public at large and, particularly, to develop the talent of the younger generation. It is highly educative in the sense that it involves special study by the competitors, while the decisions given by world-famous adjudicators who have been secured by the committee at considerable expense will be of inestimable value to all of the contestants.

In view of the fundamental purposes of the festival and its community aspect, we suggest to the committee the desirability of its reconsideration of a case to which reference is made in our correspondence columns to-day. This has to do with a young local violinist who has appeared in other festivals and who contemplated competing this year. He devoted a great deal of time and some expense to his preparation on the understanding that his music teacher would enter his name within the time limit set by the rules. The teacher inadvertently neglected to do this, and the lad did not know his name was not included in the list until a few days ago. He then applied for entry to the committee, but his application was refused because it was not made within the period set by the rules. A number of entries from Vancouver were similarly rejected because they were offered too late.

In a general sense the committee's action is easy to understand, since any considerable deviation from this rule would result in confusion. But in our opinion this is a special case which calls for special consideration, for in it a youth of unusual promise is penalized through no fault of his own. Admittedly rules are important for the orderly conduct of large festivals of this kind, but they should not be so rigidly applied as to impose an embargo upon the educational advantages promising young musicians derive from taking part in the competitions, especially where neglect to register in time is not attributable to any tardiness on their part. If there are any potential young Menuhin in this community the festival should be the occasion for their discovery, and for that purpose in unusual circumstances the rules should be as much subject to relaxation as the rules of practically every other institution that we know of. Incidentally, we are informed that there is only one other entry in this particular competition, a circumstance which should add to the weight of argument in favor of a reconsideration by the committee of its decision.

SPEAKING PLAINLY

ANOTHER ITEM FROM GERMANY THE other day quoted Finance Minister Hermann Dietrich as follows: "The nation to-day is in the last round of the struggle to liquidate the war. When the moratorium expires July 1, Germany will no longer pay. When I, the Finance Minister of Germany, can say this without international complications, it is testimony that the statesmen of other nations see the situation pretty clearly."

If reparations and war debts could be paid by a discussion of them, all the bills would have been receipted long ago. Herr Dietrich's announcement, which will probably be borne out by the progress of events, will set off a new flow of oratory in at least two countries—France and the United States. Many French statesmen and a large section of the public insist that Germany resume her payments when the moratorium has expired. And while there is a general recognition in the United States that future collections are very problematical, the fact that this is presidential election year will be sufficient incentive for the stand-patters to plead more fervently than ever for the payment of Europe's indebtedness to the American taxpayer. Herr Dietrich has given Senators Johnson and Borah second wind for their demands along this line.

 Duncan Campbell Scott lay down the chains of office in the Dominion civil service after fifty-two years of routine life which he has persistently varied by giving wings to his fancy, and leaving examples to the disciples of Pegasus. Canadian poetry had serious birth out of the mouth of the "Group of 1861," of whom Lampman, Campbell, Pauline Johnson and Carman have passed along, while Mrs. Harrison, Roberts, Canon Scott and D. C. Scott still bear the torch which yet burns with incandescent brightness.

Duncan Scott, in assured moderate comfort, has seen life and seen it whole. He has written poetry of Canada's landscape, the prowess of its red men, the grim characters of its solitude, primitive love and passion, the languorous floating of lotus leaves, frightened groups of sheep gathering in the sunset, of the little cove of Aril "where the salt wind came cool and free"—the poem which inspired John Masferrer to rise from a porter in a barroom to become ultimately Poet Laureate. Scott's poetry has these touches and many more. He wrote poetry until he was twenty-five, but at fourteen he had mastered much of music, and so fundamental was rhythm in his nature that his office contained a "dumb" piano on which his fingers found outlet when problems of administration pressed.

Loose Ends

A sure cure for depression—with robins and worms—Mr. Schwab is off in tears again—and an old complaint is revived.

By H. B. W.

AS A CURE for depression, I have not heard that robins have been recommended by the leading economists, though they have recommended just about everything else and no two of their recommendations have been similar. Still, even without the sanction of leading economists, I have no hesitation whatever in recommending robins to cure depression. I mean nesting robins, of course. My own recipe calls for a cypress tree ten feet high, not more than a fairly dense shrubbery beneath an ancient plum tree in full blossom. Next, arrange for a pair of fat robins with red vests and black overcoats to build their house in the cypress tree five feet from the ground, more or less, according to your own "night. The robins merely watch the robins' household arrangements.

WATCH THEM flying from the barnyard down to the road back and forth all day with little white wisps of hair out of horses' tails. Watch the nest grow from a shapely pile of moss into a rounded, well-knit little bowl, whereas presently will appear three blue eggs. Then watch Mrs. Robin sitting on them day after day, motionless, quite invisible to anyone who hasn't shared her glad secret from the beginning. And don't tell anyone about it, for little girls next door, their dogs and cats are bad medicine for robins.

PRESENTLY YOU will find that Mrs. Robin is not on the nest and, walking on tip-toe close to the cypress tree, you will find, instead of three eggs, a little huddled heap of skin and hair which pulsates up and down in an absurd way. Don't wake the heap. The three baby robins are asleep. And don't watch them too long, for Mrs. Robin has returned and is sitting in the plum tree shrieking in terror. Go now down to your vegetable garden and dig there. The neighbors will think you are gardening. They will not know that you have become weak-minded and gathering worms. When you have got half a dozen fat ones, lay them in a box so that they can't get out, and place the box near the cypress tree, which is hard luck on the worms, but what is a worm compared with a robin? Then stand off a way.

PRESENTLY MRS. ROBIN will flutter down, look about cautiously, and, grasping a worm firmly in her beak, will fly back to the cypress tree. There, if you watch carefully, you can see her dangle the worm expertly into a large aperture which happens to be the mouth of a baby robin. She will do the same for each of them and then gobble up the three remaining worms herself. And after you have washed these housekeeping arrangements for a week, after you have dug half an acre to provide worms, and observed the baby robins develop from a little heap of skin and hair into three huge heads and gaping mouths attached to three little bodies, and after you have washed these housekeeping arrangements for a week, then you will suddenly find that, in the face of this old, old miracle, your depression has suddenly lifted. Especially as your vegetable garden will be all ready for planting.

THE EGREGIOUS Mr. Charles Schwab, who used to be a national hero but has lately become rather an exploded myth, has lately added to his impressive list of nothing which he has been uttering for years. In that delicious, fearful manner of his, he told a meeting of businessmen that there were no more rich men in the United States, that they had all been wiped out by the business crisis, and even he, who used to be accounted one of the richest, was afraid to look over the ledger and face the facts. It all most made you cry to read of it. Of course it is all rubbish. Of course Mr. Schwab and his friends are still rich beyond the dreams of ordinary men's avarice. Of course the United States is as rich as ever, is poor only in the system of its distributing its riches. Many commentators have been quick to point out and also to preach highly moral sermons on the fact that the real riches of life, the real satisfactions are not purchasable with money added to the pile. But the point which seems to have been overlooked is that so long as the United States is run by economic feudal barons of the type of Mr. Schwab, by men who think in terms of money and imagine the country is on the verge of ruin when they lose a few millions, so long will it continue to be poor.

IT WILL be poor even when it seems rich, for under such an arrangement, inevitably waves of prosperity will be followed by waves of depression, precisely as this depression followed the foolish business leadership of the bull market. It came under the leadership of the Schwabs, who told us day in and day out that prosperity would go on increasing forever. And what a spectacle it is now—the Schwabs brokenhearted when they lose some of their millions though they have millions left, and the ordinary people, having lost nearly everything, taking their losses like sportsmen. The ordinary man of America, having lost most of his savings, is taking the losses for the most part philosophically, because their chief satisfaction is found elsewhere. The Schwabs, however, get up and make tearful speeches about it.

JUST ONE more word about this painful subject and I will never mention it again.—The maples of Parliament Square—which I befriended until I had bored everyone on their behalf to tears—the maples of Parliament Square have come out again and they look as bad as ever. The third three from the west side of the lawn seems to be in the last extremity of exhaustion and that starvation which is inevitable on a lawn where no dead leaves are left to form new soil. The others will go the same way shortly. It could have been prevented and perhaps still can. But I have no hope of the trees being saved. I expect they will die and be chopped down. And that will complete the utter barrenness of our chief public square—the barrenness and drabness, and lack of color to which we have become so accustomed by long usage that the only man to point it out was a stranger, Mr. Walkem, a member of the Legislature for Vancouver. Governments of either party seem to have no imagination about such things, no spark of feeling for nature. That is the reason I am such a dangerous anarchist.

HOWEVER, the least thing the present government can do is to follow Mr. Walkem's very sensible suggestion that a committee of competent garden authorities be appointed, acting entirely without remuneration, to draw up reasonable plans for deepening our chief square public space into something worth while, something comparable to the public gardens of other places. We call ourselves a garden city, and yet we maintain a garden about government which must secretly humiliate gardeners like Mr. Foley who happen, by a cruel fate, to be in politics. Perhaps it is this dullness and barrenness that makes all governments so dull and so barren. If we don't care to save our maples, at least let us save our trees.

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES

(From The Times Files)

Keeping pace with the development of this city and its environs, the Hudson's Bay Company has decided to subdivide the Constance Cove farm, approximately 350 acres. The property immediately adjoins the Victoria West section of the city and extends to Esquimalt harbor, where the other side it is bounded by the Gorge. This is the area now leased by the Victoria Transfer Company as pasture lands.

The contract for the alteration and extension of the Pacific Club premises at the corner of Broad and Fort Streets has been awarded to Mr. Wood for $12,000. It is expected that the work will be commenced immediately.

Weather Forecast—Victoria and vicinity—Moderate to fresh northerly and light winds, with some clouds, and not much change in temperature.

Kansas City, April 25—Snow in northern Kansas and northern Missouri has been melting, and the water from the Nebraska-Iowa state line south into the Panhandle of Texas was reported to-day, with predictions of colder weather at night.

The streets, bridges and sewers committee of the City Council will be called upon to consider the question of the new incinerator plant at their meeting this evening. The City Engineer and Alderman Henderson will report on the result of their trip to Seattle in quest of information for the construction of the new incinerator.

RULES SHOULD BE RELAXED

To the Editor:—Late Saturday afternoon a matter arising out of a decision of the Victoria Musical Festival committee regarding a young student was brought to my attention.

With all due respect to the efforts of the committee in charge, with full knowledge of the time and effort consumed in directing the affairs of the festival, I still feel a grave injustice has been done a young lad, who, through no fault of his own, has been refused an opportunity of playing at the Musical Festival next Thursday.

This boy was written to by the secretary of the Festival Association and asked to enter the violin competition at his work each year at the festival. He has been very creditable.

After paying out $4.10 for the necessary music, an expense his parents can afford at the present time, the boy has been disqualified because his teacher unfortunately forgot his promise to enter the boy at the festival, of course before a specified time.

I gave a message to the first vice-president to give to the members of the committee at their meeting on Saturday night, asking them if nothing could be done about it.

The committee apparently has a cast-iron rule which prevents any late entries in the competitions. They apparently, however, fail to see the injustice of making a splendid student suffer as only the young can suffer from disappointment, through no fault of his own.

There is only one other entry in the senior violin class; the one in which this youth was to compete, and rule of no rule, when a violin adjudicator is brought all the way from England to judge competitions it is not fair to disqualify the only other entry in that class, when, as far as the boy knew, the conditions had been complied with.

To the boy, it is little short of tragic, and to his mother and father who have made sacrifices to give him music lessons and buy his music, it is, of course, a great disappointment.

In this time of depression particularly, every effort should be made to cast rules and regulations aside as far as the young students are concerned, and make it as easy for them to enter the Musical Festival as it is the Musical Art Society.

This boy has been a member of the juvenile branch of the Musical Art Society for three years, is in fact a charter member. He is an earnest, serious student and deserves every consideration. His teacher has given him extra lessons without charging extra fees.

CRICKET

To the Editor:—In view of the visit of the Australian test cricket team to Victoria, where they are playing on June 18 and June 20, I wonder if it would be possible to obtain from some of your readers the following information:

The date of the first cricket match played in Victoria, with the names of the players and teams; the date of the match was played and the result; the name of the first Victoria cricket club; also the date of the first match played in Victoria between a Victoria team and an outside team, and the result.

Any other facts of outstanding interest in the history of cricket in Victoria would be greatly appreciated.

GOVERNMENT REFORM

To the Editor:—Mr. G. H. Bevan's very able letter to The Times on April 21 bore the following words on National Government: "It merely pointed out that a new party with a party leader and a party organization."

We should like to be permitted to say that we are not quite in accord with the editor's statement. The Government Reform Movement does not involve a new party. It abolishes two parties and becomes a representation of all the people, with the people with a definite determination of effecting economy, sound government and sound judgment.

The Government Reform Movement invites the best brains of this province in all sincerity, to co-operate in fighting depression and unemployment so that this particular corner of the North American continent may be a good place for the workers and the thinkers to live in and not merely a place for millionaires.

B.C. DRAMATIC CLUB

To the Editor:—Your editorial and Mr. H. G. Bolton's letter in Saturday's issue regarding the closing of the B.C. Dramatic Club brings to us news which few can read without a sharp pang of regret, for the beneficial tuition of such an institution cannot be measured by time or money.

Indeed, as a stone thrown into a pool causes ever-expanding ripples, so the contact with, and influence of, people of personality and character is ever sowing fresh seeds which take root and eventually bloom in our midst.

May I suggest, sir, that your paper be the first to take a step towards re-establishing the school by, say, opening a subscription list to which I will make an initial gift of a water color painting (by Mr. Parker) for sale, the proceeds to be used as my subscription.

Surely, out of the 700 old students of the school there must be many who could afford $5, and most could spare $1 at least, in order to prevent the permanent closing of such an institution.

I would also suggest (as a "little help"—even by suggestion—"is worth a lot of play") that the officials of the school take the initiative and notify, by letter, all old students, who would immediately become sympathetic, and who may be in ignorance of the facts.

Times are undoubtedly hard and one has to meet unusual circumstances by applying unusual methods. But as Mr. Bolton frankly expresses a hope that his plea for help will bear fruit, I feel that were the facts more widely known, there are many who would welcome an opportunity of helping to re-establish the school.

ALICE PARKER.

TAXES AND TROUT

To the Editor:—It might be of interest to the government to know that some of its taxes might be more palatable to those who pay if, in their application, faith was kept with the taxpayer. As far as Dunsmuir and other districts of the Island are concerned, it appears that we have been influenced to support the recently applied Fishing Tax by misrepresentation.

The following is explanatory: At a culmination of seven years' effort by the Dunsmuir Chamber of Commerce, Nanaimo Board of Trade, and other island bodies, we have been successful in securing brown trout fry from the Dominion Government to be used in restocking our streams. In these efforts we have had the co-operation of C. H. Dickie, M.P., our Federal member, and Major Motherwell, Superintendent of Fisheries. Having secured the fry we were confronted with the problem of securing rearing ponds in which to raise the fry to a size at which they could be put into streams with the minimum loss. Major Motherwell was working with us on this problem, and once the fry were from the mainland, and had promised that ponds would be provided. In the meantime A. G. Bolton had been called in Dunsmuir at which he outlined a fish conservation scheme, being used in the United States. His proposition was this: Ponds were to be built in the various districts of the Island, and the fry were to be held at the Lake Cowichan hatchery—distributed according to the capacity of the ponds. Each district was to arrange for a fish conservation scheme, provide the necessary labor and take care of the feeding of the fish. The government was to provide $100 per pond, which was the estimated cost of the materials. Mr. Bolton submitted that—and here is the catch—Mr. Bolton—to assist the government, we should agree to a fishing tax of one cent per pound, which was clearly given to understand that, if we agreed, the plan was as good as accepted by the House, and that the $100 for a pond would be forthcoming. In fact, we were urged to make immediate plans to commence work. We agreed to the proposal and, after a great deal of work, selected a pond site and prepared for action. Mr.

RADIO REPORT STILL MYSTERY

No Indication of Contents of Common's Committee Statement Yet Given

Canadian Press
 Ottawa, April 25.—While we are deeply appreciative of the assistance which has been advanced by some of the newspapers to aid the committee in making up its mind, I can only say that one guess is as good as another so far as the nature of the report is concerned. Hon. Raymond Morand, chairman of the Commons committee on radio, said to-day: "The first private session of the committee will be held to-morrow and a report may be ready for Parliament by the end of this week."

Commenting on reports emanating from Ottawa, indicating the committee had been decided on, and that it would suggest a greater measure of government control coupled with a more centralized ownership by private interests, Dr. Morand said there was no basis for such conclusions.

"If I were asked what the recommendations will be I would have to guess, just as the newspapers have been doing," the chairman said to-day.

Associated Press
 Amoy, China, April 25.—Advices from Changchow to-day said Chinese Communist troops had occupied the city and the soldiers were engaging in a carnival of looting which included raids on the homes of missionaries, schools, church and other foreign property.

The Communists raided the warehouses, stores and homes, the reports said, distributing the contents among themselves.

Airplane observers reported the approaching Cantonese army had arrived fifteen miles southwest of Changchow. Conditions here remained tense. At night the foreign warships in the harbor trained their searchlights on the foreign property along the mainland water front, to guard against possible depredations.

INTEREST IN MINING GROWS

Fifteen Hundred Apply For Placer Mining Licenses in One Week

A banner year for gold production in British Columbia is predicted as the result of reports from the Department of Mines of growing interest in mining both in placer working and prospecting.

Many applications for free miners' certificates have been received as a result of legislation passed at the last session of Parliament to help unemployed men who wished to turn to placer mining. If all who have taken out certificates try their luck at the placer workings there will be 1,500 out as a result of last week's applications.

Development work is proceeding on what is believed to be the original bed of the Leech River with James S. McDonald, hydraulic mining engineer, in charge.

Forty miners are already believed to be at McConnell Creek, north of Burns Lake and east of the Thutade Lake district on a tributary of the Ingenika River where M. J. Brown has interested Edmonton and U.S. capital.

ENGLISH CHARACTERISTICS
PRAISED BY HINCHLIFFE

Royal Society of St. George
Held Annual Banquet on Saturday

Canada's Progress Toward Greatness Assured If England's Example Followed

The annual banquet of the Royal Society of St. George was held on Saturday evening at Memorial Hall, and was attended by seventy-five men and women. Dean Quinlan, chairman, read a message from the parent society in London, England, which stated that the celebration held on Friday evening had been named "Canada Night."

Numerous letters and telegrams of greeting from all parts of the English-speaking world were read by the chairman, among them being one from the New York Herald, which expressed pleasure in seeing England leading the world out of chaos.

Dean Quinlan outlined reorganization being carried out by the Victoria branch, and announced that all present who were of English birth were entitled to membership for the current year.

Dean Quinlan remarked that it was quite possible to be a good Englishman and a good Imperialist at the same time.

H. K. Symons responded to the toast to "The Day We Celebrate." Congratulating the society upon having Dean Quinlan as president, he commented that the dean typified John Bull, "St. George's Day says to us 'Be English, hang on.'" Mr. Symons asserted, telling of the success of Britain in coming through her troubles by virtue of her ability to "hang on."

He recommended thinking about England as a way to tune up the courage of the average citizen, and considered speaking of her progress a highly commendable public exercise on St. George's Day.

Rev. E. W. P. Carter responded to the toast to "England, the Motherland." In simple phrases he portrayed the beauties of England and its development into the heart of the world and leadership of the world in civil government, military and naval achievements, literature and religion. "The great men of England are to be ranked among the world's greatest," he asserted amid applause.

The English people generally were hard-working and honest. While not perfect, and despite snobbery and an inclination to drop their "h's" the majority of the English were people among whom it was a joy to live, Mr. Carter said. "Considering all things, England will take a lot of beating," he concluded.

EXAMPLE TO CANADA
Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe responded to the toast to "Canada, Land of Our Adoption." "While we remember England with love and gratitude, it is right for us, even on a day like this to look abroad at our own land. Canada is blossoming into a nation; what is to be her future? That depends on all, and to a great extent upon the people who have come to Canada from England," he said.

"The English have certain unusual characteristics, and her people who have come to Canada have the power to imbue our people with some of the greatest characteristics recorded in the world's history," Mr. Hinchliffe considered.

"The English people have always had a great love and respect for law and order. The policeman raises his hand, there is no argument about what follows; he is a peace-loving, law-abiding man, and must be obeyed."

"If we are to progress in Canada we must emulate that respect for law and order. In England that respect is inculcated in the children in the homes. We must follow that example. In the churches the little children learn their duty towards their neighbor, and never are they able to forget those lessons. That teaching must be ingrained in Canadian life if our country is to become great," he affirmed.

"Another ingrained British trait is thoroughness. When the English workman says his job is done you know it is done," Mr. Hinchliffe said, ascribing the British success to using best materials and applying the best effort to the work in hand. "If we are to be equally successful in Canada, we must adopt similar methods to those of the English."

"Then there is the matter of trustworthiness. If we want to be a great nation we must become known as a people whose word can absolutely be depended upon. Can you imagine England repudiating a national obligation? To-day Britain is loyally carrying out her treaty obligations, despite the burden involved, because her word has been passed. Unless this nation can be relied upon to carry out her word we cannot hope to attain such a position as England holds to-day. We have the opportunity to see that such methods are transplanted to Canada, to make of our land one of the most wonderful recorded in the world's history," he concluded.

Wilfrid Ord, briefly replied to the toast to Shakespeare.

The entertainment programme included songs by Miss Edith Valliant, Miss Noel Johnson and Dr. T. Harry Johns, recitations by Capt. W. Ord, Miss Clemency Ord and D. G. Tuckwell.

The accompanists were Mrs. Johns, Stanley Bulley and Miss Valliant.

STATEMENT ON RELIEF SOON

Alberta Premier Says Bennett Will Disclose Plans This Week

Edmonton, April 25.—The policy of the federal government in dealing with unemployment in Canada will be made known by Premier Bennett in Ottawa this week, according to Premier Brownlee of Alberta, who returned to Edmonton yesterday. Mr. Brownlee was absent from Edmonton three weeks and attended the federal-provincial conference on unemployment in Ottawa.

Two conferences on unemployment occupied the attention of Premier Brownlee to-day. He conferred with his cabinet during the forenoon on the discussions at the Ottawa Conference, and in the afternoon he met Mayor D. K. Knott of Edmonton, and Mayor Andy Davidson of Calgary and discussed the jobless situation in both cities.

Both Mayor Knott and Mayor Davidson hoped for further aid from the province and the Dominion in dealing for both single and married jobless men.

"More than ever," said Premier Brownlee when interviewed, "are the financial leaders in Montreal and Toronto looking toward a prairie wheat crop this year as the most important factor in determining the upward trend in business and economic conditions generally." He said he was very well satisfied with his trip to the east, and regretted he was unable to close the results of the Ottawa conference.

Aberystwyth, Wales, April 25.—Fire which broke out during communion service yesterday destroyed the historic Hafod Church, near here. The famous chantry stonary, which was valued at $60,000, was irretrievably damaged, as was a priceless Grecian holy water urn dating from 1300 B.C. A stained glass window taken from a French abbey during the revolution was also destroyed.

RED CHEVRONS
AT REUNION

Members of First Canadian Division and Imperials Receive Memories at Banquet

Greetings Received From Lord Byng, Sir Arthur Currie and Other War Commanders

Over 100 war veterans attended the Ypres reunion of the Red Chevron Island members of the Red Chevron Association Saturday evening at the Pacific Club. Col. James East presided.

The gathering stood in silent tribute to those comrades who made the supreme sacrifice. Congratulatory telegrams conveying the good wishes of comrades were read from branches of the organization all across Canada. Viscount Byng of Vimy, who is at Government House, sent the following message: "All good wishes to the Red Chevrons. Heartiest of greetings and warmest affection to all who wore that splendid badge."

Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, who commanded the Canadian troops in France, sent the following message from Montreal: "Ypres, seventeen years ago, was in large measure our baptism of fire. It was likewise our realization of faith in ourselves, of the sacred bonds of country, and of a belief in the ultimate triumph of our ideals. Please give my comrades of the old Red Patch my affectionate remembrances of our old association."

Messages were also received from Brig.-Gen. Victor Odlum, Mrs. Margaret L. McKicking, on behalf of the I.O.D.E., and "The Little Black Devils," Winnipeg's famous 5th battalion.

RADCLIFFE SPOKE

Brig.-Gen. Sir Charles Delme Radcliffe ably traced through the decade preceding the world war the light and shade that passed over European diplomatic channels, each with its bearing on the inevitable struggle that broke in August, 1914.

Brig.-Gen. G. S. Tuxford spoke on the lighter side of the experience shared by the original Canadian contingent from Valcartier to the Armistice and subsequent occupation of Germany. He brought back memories of the gaiety that is ever close to tragedy in times of stress and paid high tribute to those who served in the world conflict.

Col. Ross Napier gave a witty rendition of the mournful ballad "Soupy Sam," an original composition, and Syd. Overall contributed a number of vocal solos.

REPRESENTATIVE PARTY

The guests included officers and men of the First Canadian division and the Imperial Land and Air Corps. There were visiting representatives of the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth and Fifteenth Battalions and the P.C.L.I., and a splendorous turnout from Victoria units which went largely into the First Canadian Field Artillery, and the Seventh and Tenth Canadian Infantry. Battalions of the First Canadian Division.

Original Victoria and Island volunteer units contributing to the makeup of the First Canadian contingent at Valcartier, which crossed to France in February, 1915, were drawn from the "Fighting Fifth" Regiment, the 88th Fusiliers and the former 50th Gordon Highlanders, with the Canadian Corps of Guides, the Canadian Signal Corps and other details.

The reunion was the second held under the auspices of the Victoria and Island branch of the organization.

FLOWER SHOW OPENS FRIDAY

One of Largest and Most Attractive Displays in Western Canada Expected

The Vancouver Island Spring Flower Show, which will be opened by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor next Friday, in the Main Building at the Willows, will be the largest, and in the opinion of those who are planning it, the most attractive display of flowers ever staged in western Canada.

Not only do the exhibits big fair to exceed in number all previous records, but the experience gained in the former Island shows has enabled the staging committee to plan the arrangement of the display in the same way that landscape architects plan the laying out of a large garden.

Each display will be as separate and distinct from every other display, as each flower bed from other flower beds in the same garden. Instead of long rows of straight tables, there will be winding alleys at every turn, of which the visitor will find a new beauty.

NOVEL DISPLAY

Surrounded by the banked beauty of the big district displays staged by the affiliated societies, the centre of the hall will be occupied by a display of a novel type arranged by the city parks department, under the personal supervision of Herbert Warren, parks superintendent. This display, which has been made possible by the generous help of the Baker Brick and Tile Co. Ltd., will take the form of a terraced brick-paved court, with flower beds surrounding an octagonal pool. From a square pedestal of brick in the centre of the pool a lively fountain will throw a tall spray of sparkling water.

The exhibition will be opened to the public at 2.30 o'clock Friday afternoon and will be open all day on Saturday. The popular Victoria Girls' Band will play in the hall each evening and on Saturday evening Reeve Hayward of Oak Bay and Mrs. Hayward will present the prizes to the fortunate winners.

Intending exhibitors who have not yet sent in their entries are reminded that these must be in the mail or delivered to the secretary, P. R. Leighton, 521 Port Street, to-night at the latest.

COMMISSION PLAN FOR RADIO

Montreal Gazette Says Committee Recommends Lease System For Companies

Montreal, April 25.—In a front page story to-day The Montreal Gazette said in part:

"Government control of radio through a special federal commission appointed for the purpose, and the retention of private enterprise through a system of ten-year leases to a number of large broadcasting stations in various parts of the country, are believed to be the broad lines on which the Commons committee on broadcasting will recommend Canada should proceed in this matter in the future. Reliable information to that effect was obtained in Montreal over the week-end and it is understood an official announcement will be made from Ottawa shortly."

"The report to be handed down by the parliamentary committee is believed to involve a plan retaining features of both major schemes that divide public opinion on the question of radio control, i.e. private enterprise as in the United States and govern-

Diversified Programme of Music Festival

Enrolment Exceeds Last Year's Record; Visitors Numerous

Victoria Musical Festival Attracts 750 Entries in 128 Classifications; Full Details of Programme and Contestants; Four Halls To Be in Use Simultaneously Throughout Week

The enrolment of the Victoria Musical Festival this morning forged ahead of the number registered last year, when a group of delayed entries was received from winners at the Upper Island Musical Festival at Nanaimo. The total registration is slightly more than 750 entries, with nearly 5,000 participants. The enrolment last year was 740 competitors.

The fact that Victoria enjoys unusually high grade adjudication has been a potent factor in bringing to the festival many out-of-town entries, especially from Washington. In addition to the visiting competitors, a large number of teachers of music have informed the festival officials that they will come to witness the week of tests as a means of advancing themselves in their profession.

The daytime choral and vocal competitions will be held at the First United Church, where all the evening programmes will be held. The piano and organ trials will take place at the First Baptist Church, and the elocution and instrumental competitions will be held at the Metropolitan schoolroom. The folk dancing will be held at the Victoria High School gymnasium. The headquarters of the festival will be removed to First United Church when the festival opens.

Cultural Worth of Festival Earns Praise

Mayor Leeming To Give Civic Welcome To-morrow Evening

Citizens Proud of Outstanding Reputation of Annual Musical Festival; Mayor Leeming Congratulates Officers Upon Achievement; Calls Upon Citizens to Roll Up a Record Attendance

"Victoria's great annual musical festival is a real community effort, worthy of the highest support from all citizens. This celebration has won for Victoria an outstanding status in the regard of musical lovers throughout the Pacific Northwest. It is an undertaking which the citizens of Greater Victoria each year expect to attain greater heights and which has annually fulfilled all expectations." This statement was made by Mayor Leeming when accepting an invitation to deliver the address of welcome to the contestants and to the eminent adjudicators.

While the festival tests will commence to-morrow morning, the formal civic welcome will be extended by Mayor Leeming to-morrow evening at First United Church.

Mayor Leeming is enthusiastic in his opinion that this year's festival will excel the five preceding ones in interest and success. He bases this opinion upon the presence of four eminent British adjudicators, a feature which no other festival in Canada can equal.

"The constructive criticism of such eminent musicians as Dr. Thomas Armstrong, H. Plunkett Greene, Harold Samuel and Maurice Jacobson should be of inestimable worth to the contestants. This opinion is widely held among musicians, and is evidenced by the large number of competitors from the United States, Vancouver and other centres," the mayor said.

CULTURAL WORTH

"It is hard to over-estimate the cultural value of such competitive events as the Victoria Musical Festival. The effect is reflected in the homes of the community for years. The holding of such festivals each year gradually builds up a standing in musical art and elocution which cannot be approached by communities which have not enjoyed similar benefits," continued the mayor.

"It is incumbent upon me, personally and as the mayor of the city, to express warmest thanks to President W. H. Muncy of the festival association and his enthusiastic organization of volunteer workers," said Mayor Leeming. He commented that the average citizen, while appreciating the festival, could have but a vague idea of the enormous amount of labor involved in organizing such a comprehensive undertaking.

The orderly arrangement of hundreds of groups of competitors, including thousands of individuals, demanded mastery of detail and a precision of arrangement which only genius could provide. He was confident that much of the work performed in recent weeks had demanded the sacrifice of valuable time and energy which none but enthusiasts would be willing to contribute.

"Mr. Muncy and his officers can rest assured that they have the thanks of the citizens of Greater Victoria. Let us all show, by our presence at the festival, the appreciation we all feel due these men and women who have worked so hard to advance the cultural interests of Victoria and the surrounding territory," the Mayor concluded.

Schools Provide Hundreds of Competitors

Children Keenly Compete In Many Songs and Dances

Spirit of Emulation Developed by Competitions Organized for Schools by Musical Festival; Instrumental Music, Choirs and Solos Share Interest With Folk Dancing Contests

The schools of Greater Victoria have again provided enthusiastic support and hundreds of competitors for the musical festival, which is annually becoming of greater interest to the children. The wide scope covered by the festival, which offers competitions for children of all ages, in singing and instrumental music and in group dancing, has resulted in development of notable interest among the students, which has annually increased since the inception of the festival six years ago.

The competitive element appears to have made a peculiar appeal to the minds of the children. This is especially notable in group entries, such as folk dancing. The rivalry between the schools is considered most healthy. Children and their teachers are keen to defend trophies won by their classes at previous festivals, while the determination of classes to win victory where last year's entries were unsuccessful produces an excellent attitude toward the respective lessons.

A long vision inspires the festival officials and the school teachers in their efforts to promote interest in music among school children. It has for its objective that, by the time the children now in elementary schools become men and women, a much wider knowledge of music will feature the life of the average citizen. To equip the children of to-day to fittingly hold their own in society, teachers have ardently supported the work of the festival officials as a means of popularizing music in the schools.

CHILDREN IN FOLK DANCES

Gay and Colorful Groups Will Compete at Festival

School Teachers Prepare Eager Groups of Contestants

At the musical festival this week English folk dancing will be revived to an even greater extent than last year. The festival association made special efforts to bring together dancing teachers, both amateur and professional, and asked them to select a test number for each class. Each group will also dance a "B" number of its own selection. By this method a greater uniformity will be obtained, and yet variety will be supplied for the sake of the public.

Under the able direction of Major A. C. Hinton, Miss E. Stewart Williams has been carefully coaching the teachers of the city and district schools in the folk dances, and a far higher standard of the Renaissance is expected. Mrs. Cotsworth Clarke of Vancouver will be adjudicator.

ANCIENT ART
Dancing has been associated with culture since before Euripides. The Greeks were a poetical people, full of dramatic instinct and conscious of the importance of physical interpretations of mental outlooks and attributes. Not only was the Greek physical interpretation the most soulful of any, it was also permanent. To-day their sculpture, their poetry and their prose inspire a keen perception for that beauty which to them was of such importance. This aesthetic sense appears to have been lost to the people as a whole in modern times. Perspectives have changed, and with the change has come realization of modern mediocrity in things spiritual and mental-physical. Correlation, to the Greeks and to some extent to the Italians of the Renaissance period, was something which everyone aimed at. To accomplish some daring feat of arms, to become a troubadour or minstrel was in itself no mean thing even in the days of chivalrous Greece or France, but to give a classical, intelligent interpretation of such things by means of a keenly developed mind was beyond the reach of most.

Education in British Columbia takes note of these things, and the school child of to-day receives an education covering his mental and physical sides. It is true that the mental side of education receives about ninety-five per cent of the whole, while physical education must be content with a mere five per cent, but even this small percentage is something—it is a beginning. Then physical education is on the increase. Study the high schools. It is as much a subject as is French and history, and what really is most important is that the gymnasium is generally a place where enjoyment reigns supreme.

DANCING POPULAR
One of the most popular, and at the same time most important of the subjects taught in physical education is dancing. The girls show most aptitude, but the boys could be cultivated along the same lines as are girls, not only would their sense of rhythm be enhanced, but their aesthetic sense would be more fully developed.

English folk dancing seems to supply most of the wants of the dancer. Freedom of thought and gesture, even talking, is allowed during the dancing, and simple and unadorned country movements form the main themes of this interpretation.

The dances are beautified by age and tradition. Most of them date from around the year 1600 and it is possible that "Merry, Merry Milkmaids," "Maze on a Cree" and "Newcastle" were danced before the Merry Monarch with all the abandon of that period.

Victoria Festival Has Four British Judges

City Fortunate In Adjudication, Says President Muncy

Vancouver Sends Bands and Dancers to Victoria's Famous Musical Festival; Seattle and Yakima Orchestras Compete Here; Splendid Programmes Every Evening, President Announces

"After a year of strenuous detailed organization, we are looking forward to a most successful season," W. H. Muncy, president of the Victoria Musical Festival Association, announced this morning. "Victoria is fortunate in that it is the only festival in Canada having the services of four eminent British adjudicators, men to whom festival adjudication is a life-work," he commented.

"In choosing the test pieces this year we have brought in the help of the Victoria Music Teachers' Association, since it is vitally interested. We trust the departure will meet with success. Jackson Hanby and Fred Waddington have also given valuable assistance in selection of test pieces. Mr. Waddington, choosing the junior choir work, the president announced.

"In order to advertise the festival and at the same time encourage the art of painting, as in past years, a poster competition has been arranged. The number of entries and high standard of work have given much satisfaction. We are deeply indebted to John Kyle of the Department of Education for judging these drawings," Mr. Muncy stated. Many of the posters are now on display in the windows of music houses in the city.

MANY OUTSIDE ENTRIES
Mr. Muncy said "the large number of entries this year was very gratifying."

"From outside points come many entries to lend added interest. Two boys' bands from Vancouver, many entrants in the string section from the Cornish School, Seattle; an orchestra from Yakima, a male voice choir from Courtenay, a set of folk dancers from Courtenay and also Mary Isdale's dancers from Vancouver for the classes on Saturday afternoon. This testifies to the high standard the Victoria festival has in the eyes of these outside towns and cities," he declared.

GOOD CONCERTS NIGHTLY
Much time and thought has been given to the procedure at the various sessions, and the programmes have been arranged to give a good concert every night. To prevent sessions being unduly long, competitors are asked to re-

Build Up Health

With Spring Tonic

The fashion of taking a Spring tonic is based on sound medical grounds. Winter has thinned and devitalized the blood stream so that it isn't carrying enough oxygen. That is the reason for the listless, languid, easily-tired-out condition so prevalent at this season.

What is needed is a tonic—one that will build new blood and restore and purify the blood stream, and thus enable it to carry the energizing oxygen that quickly revitalizes the whole system. Thousands have proven that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the ideal tonic for this purpose.

Mrs. A. Merritt of Welland says: "Again last Spring I became ill. I could not do my work; was pale, weak, and tired all the time. I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they soon made me strong and happy again." Try them and experience for yourself the new strength and vigor they will bring you. At your druggist's in the new glass container, 50c a package. (Advt.)

Mrs. Robson moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Owens for her success in taking over the presidency from Mrs. Moss at very short notice.

Mrs. Owens reported steady growth and a sound financial position. Changes had been made in the staff and in September a resident nurse had been placed at Lake Cowichan. Well baby clinics had been held under the supervision of Drs. Garner Watson, Bissett, Swan and Stanier.

The committee had sustained a great loss in the resignation of Mrs. Moss, O.B.E., founder and president of the Health Centre, who had left the district. Mrs. Owens thanked the Provincial Board of Health, the department of education, the local school board, the I.O.O.F., the Cobble Hill and Shawanigan Women's Institute, Hugh Wade and friend, for contributions.

Mrs. Pitt gave the financial statement, which showed receipts of $8,476.34 and expenditures $7,669.51. Miss Jenkins gave the nursing report and Miss Miller gave a report of the nursing service at Lake Cowichan. Dr. H. E. Young, provincial health officer, discussed the progress of health centre work in the province. In spite of the depression no community had stopped its nursing service. He congratulated the Cowichan Health Centre committee on the efficient and business like way in which it is administered.

Archdeacon H. A. Collison briefly addressed the meeting.

Glorifying Yourself

BY ALICIA HART

ANKLING ALONG TO BEAUTY. Ankles have come into their own again. We have not quite gone back to the day when the glimpse of an ankle as midday stepped out of a horse-drawn street car sent masculine hearts into a loop-the-loop. But certainly the new long skirts of afternoon and evening have concentrated attention on a lady's shoe-tops.

Fat, bulging, ungainly ankles assuredly are not in keeping with spring's vogue for sleekness in all things. If you are thus unfortunate, it is not because of any fault of your own. It is unlikely that certain exercises will do much to give you ankles that bespeak the grace which you would like to achieve.

Here are five exercises which should help you to ankle along to beauty. Perform them ten times every morning and night, at first, then gradually increase them until you can do them 100 times.

1. Stand erect, with limbs held together and arms extended forward. Separate the arms sideways on your hips. As you bring your arms back to your first position, exhale.

2. Stand erect. Holding the back of a chair, equal to a sitting position. Keeping your back straight. Now stand erect, hands at side, and rise on toes, lifting your arms above your head.

3. Kneel again, put your legs together and your hands on your hips. Raise first your right and then your left leg, sideways, up and down.

4. Standing in one spot, kick backward as far as possible with the heels as though running.

5. Now, take a recumbent position. Next bring the limbs up to the chest, and perform a complete circle, alternating first your right and then your left leg, as if you were pedalling.

These exercises may help you to attain the perfect ankles you desire. But once having attained that perfection, do not call a halt. Continue the exercises to retain the good results which you have achieved.

To Show Films of World Tour.—In the Grange Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, A. C. The travelling will be under the auspices of the young people of the Church of Our Lord.

Your Baby
and Mine

BY MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

BEST VASTLY IMPORTANT FOR THE
NURSING MOTHER

The joy and satisfaction of furnishing the baby with an adequate supply of breast milk is one that cannot be enjoyed without effort. Natural as it is breast feeding and desirable as it is from every possible angle, the nursing mother must look upon it as a function demanding not only the necessary "will to do," but a good technique as well.

The reasons why the modern mother is so often a poor nurse are not hard to find. Most of all she's too busy. She has a hundred duties in and outside of the home. She dislikes the restraint of her freedom which nursing often brings, and the moment she meets an obstacle she is ready to discard nursing and adopt bottle feeding. The latter seems so simple and satisfactory.

She has some faulty ideas about breast feeding which are hard to eradicate. These ideas are massed on from generation to generation and are espoused not because of their truthfulness, but from habit.

EXCESSIVE LIQUIDS

The average mother thinks that if she drinks quantities of milk she is certain to supply a nourishing breast milk. Sometimes she imagines that tea or some other beverage has this magical quality. It is true that the nursing mother needs to drink a normal amount of milk, but all that an excessive amount of fluid does for her is to increase her own body weight and leave the breast supply unaffected.

While it is essential that the mother have the kind of diet to keep her in good health and supply her with all the necessary food elements, the diet itself has less effect on the breast supply than the mother supposes. The size of the breast is of no consequence. What is of paramount significance is the regular, thorough stimulation and emptying of the breast at each nursing period, and sufficient rest.

SUCCESS METHODS

These two factors should be better understood and more respected. They make for success. The procedure of stripping the breast by manual expression is outlined in my leaflet, "The Nursing Mother." Any interested reader may obtain a copy by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope with her request for it. In the leaflet also, are all the best known methods by which a mother can make herself a successful nurse.

Rest is almost magical in its effect. The tired, nervous mother whose supply is diminishing, or whose afternoon nursings are distressingly inadequate, needs rest and lots of it. Take a nap in the afternoon while baby is napping, even if the dishes stand unwashed. Lie down for fifteen minutes or more in the morning after baby's bath. And give a conscientious effort to get to bed early at night. It is an effective means of improving a waning supply of breast milk when everything else is as it should be.

KITCHEN

OMELET LORE

Perhaps one of the most attractive ways to serve eggs is in omelets. For breakfast, luncheon or late supper, they always appear to good advantage. Plain or with a sauce, a delicate omelet is sure to please.

There is no mysterious secret or indescribable trick connected with omelet making. Anyone who is willing to measure accurately and take the trouble of cooking carefully can make a perfect omelet. To be sure certain precautions must be taken, but the rules are simple and easy to follow.

Remember that an omelet must never be allowed to stand at any stage of its preparation. It must be mixed quickly, cooked at once and served on a hot dish as soon as it is done.

With two types of omelets and their numerous variations the hostess has a wide choice. The French omelet is made by beating the whole eggs while the whites and yolks separately. The French usually is served with a filling of some sort spread over it just before folding. The puff omelet often is served with a jelly or sometimes a sauce is poured around it. However, there is no set rule regarding this and the types are used interchangeably. The puff omelet seems a bit more impressive and interesting when served, but is no harder to make than the plain one.

FRENCH OMELET

Four eggs, 2 tablespoons milk or water, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon white pepper, 4 tablespoons butter.

Beat eggs together until well mixed, but not light. Add milk and seasonings, and turn at once into hot omelet pan or iron spider thoroughly covered with butter. Pour omelet mixture gently into the pan, taking care not to scatter the butter. As bubbles form, prick them with fork and stir the top lightly to keep smooth and insure even cooking. As omelet becomes firm on the bottom, lift the edges gently with a fork and tip pan slightly to loosen omelet from the bottom. Cook over a low flame until firm. Place in a hot oven or under the flame for one minute to dry the top. When done, hold the pan by the handle and make a cut with spatula through the centre at right angles to the handle. Be careful not to cut through the omelet. Run spatula around edges to be sure they are free from pan. Place spatula under section of omelet nearest handle and fold over other half, tipping pan at the same time and sliding to a hot platter.

PUFFY OMELET

Four eggs, 2 tablespoons minute tapioca, ½ cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 3 tablespoons butter.

Add salt and tapioca to milk and cook in double boiler for fifteen minutes. Remove from heat and add yolks of eggs beaten until thick and lemon colored. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Pour into hot buttered omelet pan and cook and fold as in preceding recipe.

JUNIOR NEEDS THAT SUNNIEST ROOM

Now that we are all house minded it doesn't seem to be so much of an effort to change rooms around. So I am taking advantage of your receptive state, mothers, to make a few timely suggestions.

You may not be ready yet for the spring tear-up—save the mark—but planning well before-hand is half the battle. Besides, as I have suggested before, I advise every woman not to kill herself housecleaning all in one week. Dark, showery days are as good as any to clean and it pays to take a day now and then to do all you can inside. Then you won't be nursing yourself back to health and strength all summer, running to have your aching joints and aches put back into place. And by the way, don't try to lift or move anything you have no chance to touch.

Well, here I have gotten on a siding, when I should be back on the main track. It is about that violet and green bedroom of yours on the southeast corner that gets all the sun and everything. The baby has a nice little alcove, or better still, a room of his own within earshot. There are dogs and cats and even all over the wallpaper and his cute furniture just fits.

I feel like a bandit going into that perfectly arranged home of yours and asking a few questions. And I might discover that the baby's alcove is just right and that Charlie's room is too. Both of them get sun and air and Charlie's room doesn't get a bit like a safe oven with the kitchen stove right under his bed.

JUNIOR IS KING NOW!

Er, however, your little house was planned for a bride and groom with the master bedroom in the pick and choice spot of the whole place. I should have to be polite but firm. In spite of the goings and comings, the spaces that just fit and the Easter egg effect you will have when you change about, I should advise it.

about new defences. Sunlight is not merely for warming purposes—it is the most powerful germ killer, cleanser and purifier on earth.

I hope you don't mind.

AT CAPITOL

"Alias the Doctor" Also Starring Marian Marsh, Lucille
La Verne and Others

In "Alias the Doctor," the First National and Vitaphone picture which opens at the Capitol Theatre to-day, Richard Barthelmess comes with what may be ranked as his finest portrayal.
He plays a brilliant young surgeon who undergoes shame and imprisonment to alleviate a worthless foster brother. It is a story of tremendous sweep and power, of thwarted love, supreme sacrifice and devotion. It is a picture that has been an opportunity for emotional expression, such as no picture has quite afforded him since "Tolable David." And back of it all in a theme of undying love and romance that is finally unveiled in a happy surprise.
Playing in support of Mr. Barthelmess is an unusually strong cast headed by Marian Marsh. Others who are prominent are Norman Foster, Lucille
La Verne, Adrienne Dore, Oscar Apfel,
John St. Polis, Wallis Clark, George
Rosen, Nigel de Bruin, Reginald
Barlow, Arnold Lucy, Harold Walbridge and Robert Farlan.

COLUMBIA SHOWS

"THE SPOILERS"

Rex Beach's famous story of the north, "The Spoilers," comes again to the screen with pulsating dialogue and action. A tremendous hit, either in novel or silent picture form. It is enhanced mightily in the talking version which starts its three-day run at the Columbia Theatre to-day. In a cast teeming with feature players will be see Gary Cooper, supported by two of the most accomplished actresses now playing, Kay Johnson and Betty Compton, who have the parts of the good and the bad women. The film abounds in spectacular scenes of Alaska and its early days, and contains what has been generally considered the most vivid fight scene ever filmed.
On the same programme will be shown a rollicking "Our Gang" comedy, "Dogs Is Dogs," and a new series of first run cartoons, entitled "The Villain's Curse," an uproarious skit with a laugh in every foot. A pleasant feature of the Columbia programme are the organ solos by Geo. Read, daily from 12.30 to 1 p.m., which are becoming more appreciated from day to day.

RICHARD ARLEN

AT PLAYHOUSE

Richard Arlen, Paramount's personable young star, has a new leading woman in his newest picture, "The Secret Call," now at the Playhouse Theatre.
She is Peggy Shannon, the sensation of Hollywood who was catapulted into fame overnight when the illness of Clara Bow made it necessary to find a "pinch-hitter" at once for the leading feminine part in this thrilling dramatic romance.
Arlen is seen as the son of a big city political boss. Miss Shannon is the telephone operator who vows vengeance on the political gangster after they have ruthlessly sacrificed her father to save "the machine" from disgrace. Due to a series of tense circumstances, Miss Shannon gains the upper hand in the battle of wits with the politician, but because of her love for Arlen she reconsiders. The climax is supercharged with high-voltage dramatics.

EMPIRE STARS

RONALD COLMAN

Hollywood abounds in people of unsuspected talents. Among them is Ullrich Haupt, one of the supporting cast of Ronald Colman's "The Unholy Garden," which is showing at the Empire Theatre to-day.
Haupt studied painting in Germany, and sold nineteen canvases since going to Hollywood from the New York stage.
Much of his time between scenes in "The Unholy Garden" was devoted to sketching, and as soon as the Ben Recht-Charles "MacArthur" story was filmed he headed for the Indian country of the west to prepare a book, which he will illustrate himself. Also on the same programme is Chapter II of "Detective Lloyd." It is entitled
"The Panther Strikes." In it the nearly exhausted Jack Lloyd manages to crash a chair through the skylight of the lethal chamber and free himself and Diana Brooks who he takes to the home of his friend, Mrs. Simmons.
Diana remains in a critical state and unable to divulge her true identity.
Meanwhile, Sybil has persuaded the unsuspicious Mr. Hale to show her the real jeweled armet which is concealed in a safe in a painted chamber. Sybil immediately communicates with the Panther.

THE SPORTS MIRROR

Newcastle United Wins English Soccer Cup for Third Time

Veteran Stan Zbyszko Feels Young and Wants Ring Engagement

Race Driver Pilots Car Around Indianapolis Track Blindfolded

Condensed Programme of This Summer's Olympic Games Given

NEWCASTLE UNITED rose to the heights in English football on Saturday afternoon when they won the coveted English cup at Wembley Stadium, defeating the favored Arsenal club 2 to 1. This marked the third cup victory for the northern side in eight attempts, although on the short end of the odds turned in a smashing exhibition of real cup-tie soccer to humble London representatives.

On their season's performance Arsenal appeared to have the better team, but they were at a disadvantage Saturday through player injuries. Newcastle, in matches just previous to the cup final failed badly, but results in league games do not always indicate the outcome of a struggle at Wembley. The United entered the fray with a much younger team. Arsenal were unfortunate in not having James, their brilliant forward, available for the match, as he has scored many goals for the club this season.

Maybe it's just the tang of spring in the air, but be that as it may, Stanislaus Zbyszko, former world heavyweight wrestling champion, was a fight to a finish with some well-known heavyweight boxer, preferably Primo Carnera. Zbyszko's age is a mystery, but he is believed to be more than thirty. He announced the fight day he would like the match and suggested that the unique encounter be staged in one of Spain's largest bull fighting rings, in order to provide two muscular giants plenty of elbow room.

Zbyszko, however, agreed to take the match in either London, Paris or Berlin. He furthermore agreed to fight Carnera or any other well-known heavyweight for the entire gate receipts with a $5,000 personal bet to the side. Rules for the contest can be made by the boxer's manager. Zbyszko states he is in the pink of condition and figures he is good enough to take any present day heavyweight boxer into camp.

Down at Indianapolis preparing for this year's 500-mile race for $100,000 in cash prizes, is a driver named Joe Russo, who has driven the two and a half mile brick and concrete strip at the Indianapolis Speedway at high speed with his eyes blindfolded. Russo, a comparatively new pilot at this famous course, drove the inhabitants to the high seats in the grandstand during training season, preceding last year's race when he announced that he would permit himself to be blindfolded by a committee to take the car around the track at high speed.

Several old-time drivers were working on their cars in the pits, their cars stranded in the little trackside workshops along the home stretch. So while the commotion unfolded, Russo for his ride the old-timers moved their cars off the course.

"He may be good," remarked the veteran Auburn halberd, "but I don't see how he can get out there as a target. It always has been tough enough for most of the boys to get around with two eyes and some of the top have to have the help of an optician's lens to make the grade."

But Russo negotiated the track at high speed. His eyes had been bandaged by a neutral committee. There seemed no chance for deception. And Russo says the drivers by foot and sound, at any rate, his stunt was a complete success.

Russo, one of the first drivers to have his car blindfolded for last year's contest, went out of the running in the 272nd mile of the 500-mile run which was won by Louis Schneider, former Indianapolis motorcycle champion.

"I have some new stunts to do on the track with my eyes blindfolded," explains Russo. "But I won't be ready to try them until I get my car in good shape. I have a lot of fun doing these stunts for the drivers. They are sceptical and even when I permit them to apply the bandages they think there is some trick to my stunt."

A condensed programme for the Olympic games this summer at Los Angeles follows:

Walter Johnson can discover no sound reason for embarrassment over his prediction early this spring that Monte Weaver would win plenty of ball games for Washington's Senators. Weaver evidently is determined to vindicate his manager's judgment for he already owns three straight victories, two over the champion Philadelphia Athletics.

CITY ELEVEN BEATS JOKERS

Scores 3 to 1 Victory in Peden Cup Soccer Replay; Telfer Gets Three Goals

Royal Oak Registers 4 to 0 Win Over Victoria Juniors in Final of Cup

Three goals by Telfer gave Victoria City a 3-to-1 victory over the Jokers Saturday afternoon at the Jokers Athletic Park in the replay of their Peden Cup football fixture. The teams played to a 1-to-1 deadlock on Good Friday. In the first game of the double-header the Royal Oak Juniors defeated Victoria Juniors 4 to 0 in the final of the Lower Island Cup series.

Fielding a weakened club and forced to play with only ten men in the early part of the first half the Jokers were no match for the smooth-working City eleven. One of the features of the match was the fine exhibition of goal-tending turned in by Gordon Chalmers, who kicked the Jokers.

The match opened with the City on the attack, and with only ten men the Jokers were hard pressed to keep their goal clear. After fifteen minutes the City was still on the attack, and with only ten men the Jokers were hard pressed to keep their goal clear.

Three goals by the Payne Brothers, Jack and George, featured the victory of Royal Oak over the Victoria Juniors. The Oaks turned in a fine exhibition to capture the cup-final, and displayed better combination and shooting ability than their opponents.

Opening on the attack, Royal Oak went into the lead early in the game when Jack Payne sent a snizzling shot past George. Fifteen minutes later George Payne put his team two in the lead.

Starting with a four-hit shut-out over Boston Red Sox and Horace Lisenbee, Weaver beat the A's and Rube Walberg 7 to 4, last week although he failed to finish that game.

Yesterday Johnson sent him against the Sox again. This time the young right-hander went the route, held the A's to seven scattered hits while Washington clouted George Earnshaw and Joe Bowman for fourteen hits and won 8 to 2.

Detroit's amazing Tigers, however, managed to keep a half game ahead of the Senators for the American League lead by scoring eight runs in the last two innings to conquer Chicago White Sox, 10 to 9.

George Piggas pitched New York Yankees to an easy 9 to 2 verdict over Boston Red Sox in a game remarkable only in that the Yankees failed to hit a home run. Piggas allowed only six hits and struck out an even dozen.

Behind Earl Hubbell's five-hit pitching, New York Giants easily trounced Brooklyn 7 to 2. Chick Fullis collected three hits in a sixteen-hit drive by the Giants.

The world champion St. Louis Cardinals turned back Cincinnati, 8 to 3. Chick Hafley, making his first start in the Cincinnati outfield, collected three singles against his former team-mates.

West Ham United Sinks Deeper In Relegation Mire

Famous London Club, Beaten by Birmingham Saturday, Faces Serious Fight to Hold Position in English First Division Football; Everton Missed Great Chance to Cinch League Championship; Sheffield and Villa Players Honor Late Secretary; Motherwell Wins Scottish Title

London, April 25.—While the interest of soccer fans in England on Saturday was principally absorbed with the cup final at Wembley the league matches were not without their attractions on account of the desperate struggles going on between clubs for promotion or relegation. Everton, who were expected to practically settle the question of the championship of the First Division, missed their chance when they suffered an unexpected defeat at Middlesbrough.

They were beaten by a shock goal snatched by Bruce in the fourth minute of the match when he bundled the Everton custodian and the ball into the goal. It was a coincidence that both last season's cup finalists won their matches in London—West Bromwich Albion defeating Chelsea and Birmingham beating West Ham United.

Birmingham's victory put West Ham deeper in the relegation mire though the Londoners played up strongly and were twice in the lead. Briggs, Birmingham star, twice equalized and then the West Ham defence made errors and let through Curries and Smith, who scored. The battle at Stamford Bridge was an even affair, West Bromwich Albion lost out by the goals of Curries and Smith, who scored. The battle at Stamford Bridge was an even affair, West Bromwich Albion lost out by the goals of Curries and Smith, who scored.

Prague Athlete Sets World Mark
Prague, April 25.—Frank Dolda, of the Sport Club, Slavia, established what was announced as a new world record for the shot put to-day—a distance of 16.65 metres (about 54 1/2 feet).

This qualifies Dolda to participate in the Olympic games at Los Angeles. The former world record was established by Emil Hirschfeld in 1928. It was 15.87 metres.

MONTREAL AND TORONTO LOSE
Canadian Clubs Suffer Set-backs in International League Clashes

New York, April 25.—Scoring eight runs in the first inning of a wild and woolly game, which produced two home runs, Newark Bears decisively defeated Montreal Royals, 16 to 8, at Newark in an International League baseball game yesterday. Dixie Walker of the Bears, collected five hits in six times at bat. Three of them went for doubles.

Buffalo and Rochester also hung up victories, while Baltimore garnered two wins for a double header from Toronto Leafs.

Playing at Jersey City, Bisons made it two in a row over the Jersey City Skeeters, pouncing four Skeeter pitchers for sixteen base hits to romp away with an easy 11 to 5 victory. Ollie Carnegie, centre fielder of the Buffalo Bisons, hit a home run and three singles in five trips to the plate.

Rochester got to three Reading hurlers for seventeen hits, to capture the third straight game of the series from the Keys, 8 to 5. Chuck Wille, Key southpaw, was shelled from the mound in the fourth after the wing batters had gotten to him for ten hits and runs.

FOUR HOME RUNS
Featured by Bill Regan's three home runs in the top of the first and Frank Packard's homer in the nightcap with three on base, the Baltimore Orioles took both ends of a double header with the Toronto 49ers, 9 to 4, and 6 to 5. The Bisons mangled the pitching of Smith, Liebhart and Buttsberger for a total of thirteen hits in the opener, while Richmond and Tashner held the visitors to six blows. Toronto out-hit the Orioles 10 to 9 in the nightcap and had the winning run on base in the final frame, but Holloway stemmed the rally.

Ex-King George And Rowing Club in Tie
Vancouver, April 25.—Disposition of the Tisdall Cup was still undecided Saturday afternoon at Brockton Point, when Rowing Club and Ex-King George played to a 4 to 6 tie in the play-off. Rowing Club scored the only points of the first half when Leroy kicked a penalty goal for offside.

Rose evaded the count early in the second half when he went over after one of the prettiest broken field runs of the season. Shortly afterwards, Ex-Kings started a three-quarter run at the halfway line which ended with Murray Rowan barging over. Neither try was converted, both being in the corner. With five minutes to go, Leroy booted a penalty goal from forty-five yards, the ball hitting the upright and bouncing over the bar for the tie and final point.

Fractional Gains In Wheat Prices With Strong Close

Winnipeg, April 25.—Late-session strength at Chicago on predictions of colder weather and frost over south-west winter wheat areas offset bearish reports of soaking rains over Western Canada wheat lands in the grain pit to-day. Values at the close were 1/2 to 1/4 higher.

Some export trade was worked over the week-end but no estimate was available. Opening lower on the strength of continued precipitation throughout the west the market settled to quiet trading in a narrow range for the greater part of the morning. Chicago led the way to higher levels near the close on predictions of colder weather with frost threatening winter wheat areas.

An interesting feature of the export trade was the working of 100,000 bushels on a premium for its protein content. The wheat weighed 58 pounds to the measured bushel, with only 12 per cent moisture and 15 per cent protein. First sale to be made to British Columbia, the sale suggests possibilities.

Cash wheat and coarse grains were dull with little change in price.

To-day's Grain Markets

WINNIPEG

(By Logan &amp; Bryan)

Winnipeg, April 25.—Wheat: While trading in wheat was not large to-day, the market displayed a firm undertone and outside of a mid-session dip prices were mostly fractionally higher. Export sales over the week-end were estimated at 400,000 to 500,000 bushels, mostly Manitoba, and during the first part of the session there was fair buying by houses with continental connections. There was also scattered buying later by the same houses, but they were not inclined to follow the full upturn.

The Liverpool market was firm, closing 1/2 to 1/4 higher, but this was offset by the weakness in sterling which was off four points from close Saturday. The stock market was weak but had little effect on wheat.

The official weather map showed general showers or rain over the entire grain belt both in Canada and the U.S., but this was again offset to some extent by the forecast predicting frosts to-night in Kansas and Nebraska. If the frosts are sufficiently severe the already late crop will again be set back. The U.S. visible decreased 3,672,000 bushels for the week, and Canadian visible decreased 6,013,000 bushels, most of the latter is now on the lakes and will show up again when unloaded at the other end.

There was little or no improvement in the demand for cash wheat, and all spreads were about unchanged except the durums, which were somewhat lower. Country market prices in the west on Saturday were 245,000 bushels vs. 346,000 on to-day.

Winnipeg futures closed 1/2 to 1/4 higher. Coarse grains: Oats and barley steady most of the day, but strong in the late trading. It was difficult to locate the support but it was understood that some oats and barley had been sold at to-day's close. The cash markets were quiet with spread on top grades out of 1/2. The rye market was weak throughout, but recovered near the close most of the counter London action in Chicago was the principal feature.

Oats closed 1/4 to 1/2 higher in the old crop months, barley 1/4 to 1/2 higher, and rye 1/2 to 1/4 lower. Flax 1/4 to 1/2 lower.

Liverpool due 1/4 to 1/2 higher, based on Winnipeg.

LOWER CLOSE AT MONTREAL

Canadian Press
Montreal, April 25.—After breaking to a new low for all time in early trading, Canada-Cement preferred climbed back and finished with a fractional gain to provide the feature of to-day's session of the Montreal Stock Exchange. The market was generally lower at the close.

Cement preferred opened at 31, off 8 1/2 points from previous close, and finally ended the day at 40. Sales were approximately 300 shares. The common stock closed 1/4 at 3 1/2. Bell Telephone at 85 and the Canada Wire and Cable "A" at 42, both lost two points, and their closing prices were new low levels for the year. B.C. Power "A" at 17 was down 1/2, while Canada Car preferred advanced 1/4 at 12 1/2.

Brazilian Traction, International Nickel and Canadian Pacific Railway were all unchanged.

TORONTO MINES MIXED, NARROW

Canadian Press
Toronto, April 25.—Mixed and narrow price movements, marked trading on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange to-day, values rallying around midday from early weakness and closing with losses and gains about evenly divided. The change in hours to coincide with New York had little effect on trading, total sales running 130,000 shares against 150,000 last Monday.

The northwest Canadian section out-look has been improved by good rains; although the seeding time is likely to be prolonged into May, which may be an adverse feature later. Primary receipts are falling off again. World shipments were 16,082,000 from North America. Look for moderate receipts; liberal decreases in visible stocks, and a gradually improving market for wheat. Corn: New Iowa for season were made for May and July corn, with scattered liquidation a factor. The late strength in wheat brought about a fair rally. The Argentine market was steady and the decline here puts American corn closer to export level.

Corn: Low enough to attract investment buying on the set-backs. Visible supply decreased 377,000. Sales best in some time at 114,000 bushels; country bookings, 47,000.

Cash: Liquidation was in evidence early with rally of around 1/2 cent, later in sympathy with wheat. Sales decreased 211,000. The rains are a gradual improvement for the new crop. Cash sales 42,000 bushels. Rye: Sold off early, but rallied later. Cash demand moderate. No new export business was indicated.

Coarse grains: Oats and barley steady most of the day, but strong in the late trading. It was difficult to locate the support but it was understood that some oats and barley had been sold at to-day's close. The cash markets were quiet with spread on top grades out of 1/2. The rye market was weak throughout, but recovered near the close most of the counter London action in Chicago was the principal feature.

Oats closed 1/4 to 1/2 higher in the old crop months, barley 1/4 to 1/2 higher, and rye 1/2 to 1/4 lower. Flax 1/4 to 1/2 lower.

Liverpool due 1/4 to 1/2 higher, based on Winnipeg.

Atlantic Liners Have Hard Times

Several Big Ships Cancel
Passages When Fare Reductions Fail to Bring Results

Usual Tourist Season Promises to Be Fairly Good; Big Liners to Make Excursions

Southampton, April 23.—Despite recent sweeping reductions in transatlantic passenger fares, the expected rush of tourists has not yet commenced and as a result the sailings of a number of the largest Atlantic liners were cancelled last week. Business will pick up, it is expected as soon as the colleges and universities of North America close, as there are many large tourist parties of young people who are coming over to "do" Europe.

The sailing of the White Star liner Homeric from Southampton for New York last Wednesday was cancelled when the passenger list booked was not large enough to warrant the voyage. The liner, which was originally scheduled to go into the transatlantic service this week-end will not be commissioned until the middle of May.

The Homeric has had a winter of idleness and as the hopes for improved conditions with the lowered fares have not yet been realized, it is not known just when the Homeric will re-enter the service. Among other cancellations is understood to be the Cunard liner Mauretania, which is scheduled to sail from here for America April 30.

SPECIAL CRUISES
The Canadian Pacific voyages between England, France and Canada have been largely reduced this year. The liner Empress of France will not operate at all, but will remain tied up. During the slack season in July and August some of the small liners of the fleet will take special holiday cruises from England to the Mediteranean while the Empress of Australia will take two special voyages from England to Norway and Sweden. When the liner Empress of Canada returns to England in May, June, and July in August and in September the liner Empress of Britain will be in the service.

Some of the biggest of the transatlantic liners operating between England and New York will take a series of week-end excursions from New York during the summer months. Many of the ships will go to Halifax for a few hours and will return to New York. Others will remain in the Atlantic, but will remain tied up to Bermuda despite the fact that that place is always looked upon as a winter resort. One or two of the big ships are scheduled to take vacation trips from New York down the St. Lawrence River and up the Saguenay.

CRUISE SHIPS LEAVE JAPAN

Franconia and Resolute Following Each Other Across the Pacific

Two big liners are now crossing the Pacific Ocean from the Orient to California in the course of their world voyages and will take passengers from California to New York or Europe, Victoria steamship agents were advised this morning.

The ships are the Franconia of the Cunard Line and the Resolute of the Hamburg-American Line. They are running within a day or two of each other and have now sailed from Yokohama for Honolulu. The Resolute is due in Honolulu May 9 and the Franconia the following day.

The Resolute will go to San Francisco and will leave that port May 10 going down the coast and through the Panama Canal to New York with stops en route at Balboa, Cristobal and Havana. She is due in New York May 27 and will then go on to Cherbourg, Southampton and Hamburg, being due at the latter port June 9.

The Franconia will visit Los Angeles harbor while on this coast. She is due here May 12 and after calls at Panama Canal ports and Havana will reach New York May 27, the same day as the Resolute. She will cross the Atlantic to Plymouth, Havre and will right up the Thames to London, being due there June 7.

The Empress of Britain, of the Canadian Pacific fleet, the only other ship to make a voyage around the world this season, finished her cruise at New York two weeks ago. She is now at Southampton receiving her first annual general overhaul, preparatory to entering her second transatlantic season. She will make her first trip this year from Victoria to New York, leaving May 21. She is due at Queenstown, sailing May 21. She is due at New York May 27 and will sail May 29. From then until the end of the summer she will give a fast and frequent service between Canada and Europe.

TOO BIG FOR NEW BRIDGE
Japanese Training Ship Unable to Get Under New Structure at Sydney

Sydney, N.S.W., April 23.—Although Sydney's new harbor bridge, the size of their newly-opened harbor bridge, and the designers calculated a sufficient margin for passage of the largest vessel calling or likely to call at Sydney for many years, one vessel recently visited this port which was unable to pass beneath it.

She was the Japanese merchant training barge Shinkoku Maru. With a height of 197 feet, the mainmast of this vessel fully loaded at dead low tide would touch the bridge by several inches.

At flood tide and in light trim the mast would be eleven feet higher than the roadway of the bridge. As docking facilities at Sydney necessitate passage under the bridge, the Shinkoku Maru, if she had arrived in Sydney during low tide, the waterline, could not have been repaired.

This service was inaugurated two years ago and has proved extremely popular with the motoring public. The Olympic is now in Seattle being groomed for her summer activities.

OUT SATURDAY
Among outboard liners of the week is the President Madison of the American Mail fleet, which will sail from Victoria to the Orient on Saturday evening.

On her way across the Pacific from Yokohama to Victoria and Seattle the liner President Madison will call at Victoria on Saturday last. She is scheduled to arrive here Tuesday morning, May 3.

BOAT DRILLS CARRIED OUT

Crew of Princess Elizabeth
Engage in Regular Weekly
Practice Here

All Coast Ships Carry Out Drills Regularly and Ready
in Case of Accident

Four sharp, staccato blasts from the whistle of the steamer Princess Elizabeth and the men get to their places along the boat deck. Another roar from the steam whistle and the hoses are played out over the water. Still another roar and a boat is lowered. The boat deck is humming with activity and passers-by over the unusual proceedings, usually carried out when a ship is at sea.

It is fire practice and lifeboat drill for the crew of the Princess Elizabeth and because she is at sea only at night the drills are gone through each Monday as the ship is tied up alongside her dock either here or in Vancouver. The operating ships of the fleet on the triangle run and in other routes on the coast also carry out their drills each week, sometimes when the ship is at sea and quite often in port.

JOB FOR EVERY MAN
It is an interesting ceremony and one that is gone through with clock-like precision. Each man knows exactly where his boat is and stands by while the orders are given. Life preservers are swung out from their davits and lowered on stout ropes, and in each lifeboat are five men, who man the oars. The boats hold between thirty and fifty people, depending on their size. There is enough room in the boats to look after the entire passenger list of the ship. The ropes work well and in a short time the boats are down in the water and away from the side of the ship.

In case of fire the boats are equipped with hoses and buckets. The axes are not used during the drills, but the hoses are and six of them this morning played merrily out on the waters of the harbor from the top deck of the Princess Elizabeth. And all the time blasts were being given every few moments from the ship's whistle. All orders are given in English, directly from the bridge by the captain of the ship. These orders go to the officer in charge of each boat, who in turn instructs the men under him.

Canada Is Due
Here To-morrow
Slightly delayed on her way here from Honolulu, Oahu, the Empress of Canada will arrive here to-morrow afternoon before the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Canada reaches the William Head quarantine station from the Orient last night, according to a wireless message received in Victoria this morning by L. D. Chetnam, local agent, from Capt. J. J. Hay, R.N.R., commander of the liner. It will be about 5 o'clock before the ship docks at the Rithet pier. There is a good list of passengers aboard the Empress of Canada this voyage, including many Orient residents going through to England to spend the summer months. A large number of people embarked at Honolulu last Thursday, including many people from Seattle and California. They will leave the ship here on their way to the United States.

Yesterday evening at 8 o'clock the Empress of Canada was 926 miles away from Victoria. It was reported at the Gonzales Wireless Station.

Assigned to command the 550-ton yacht Fortia on auxiliary patrol on the North Sea and north coast of Scotland he made a good job of this difficult assignment and was cited for the D.S.O., which was presented to him by H.R.H. the Prince of Wales at Esquimaux naval station in 1919, during the Prince's first Canadian tour.

Returning to the Canadian Pacific in 1919, he joined the Empress of Russia as chief officer. Afterwards he commanded at various times the Empress of Japan, the Matsawa and Montague, was promoted as commander on the Empress of Asia.

Knocking around on tramp ships for a year, Capt. Lovegrove came to the Pacific in 1910, joining the old Empress of Japan. Later he served in the Empress of Japan and was chief officer in the Empress of India in 1914, when that ship was bought by the Maharajah Scindia of Owalpur, who named her the Loyalty and presented her to the British as a hospital ship. Capt. Lovegrove was present at Bombay with other officers of the ship when Viscountess Willingdon performed the rechristening ceremony.

Capt. Lovegrove's war service, besides winning him the Distinguished Service Order, increased his capacity as a commander and gave him ample opportunity to reveal his qualities as a seaman.

Asia's New Skipper Is Veteran of Seas

Capt. A. V. R. Lovegrove First
Joined Pacific Fleet Aboard
Empress of China in 1910

On her first voyage with Capt. A. V. R. Lovegrove, R.N.R., in command, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia is making good time. She sailed from Victoria for the Orient Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock and yesterday evening at 8 o'clock was 501 miles away from this port. This is an exceedingly good twenty-six hour run and is nearly as good as the Empress of Japan can make.

Capt. Lovegrove has been on the Pacific many years and has been a regular skipper on the Empress of Asia many times.

Born in Liverpool in 1876, he received the rigorous early training for which the British merchant marine is famous. He had a two-year course in that famous training ship, H.M.S. Conway, and completed his apprenticeship with three years in sailing ships.

Captain Lovegrove went to sea as an officer in 1893 with E. F. & W. Roberts Co., Liverpool, in the Andromeda, serving for some time in all parts of the world. This fine old ship, Capt. Lovegrove recalls, went ashore near Tierra del Fuego, shortly after he had left her, and remained ashore twenty years until shortly after the armistice in 1918 when she arrived in London with a grain cargo after having been salvaged.

Captain Lovegrove then served some time in steam vessels, but went back to sail in one of Law's ships out of Glasgow. "This," he said "was the only foreign line I ever served."

In 1900 he joined the Pacific Steam Navigation Line, Liverpool to Valparaiso, and in 1903-04 was on H.M.S. Terpsichore taking a course of naval training with the South African squadron. He had joined the naval reserve in 1894 as midshipman and was discharged following his course at Cape Town as lieutenant. Last December, when that ship was bought by the Maharajah Scindia of Owalpur, who named her the Loyalty and presented her to the British as a hospital ship. Capt. Lovegrove was present at Bombay with other officers of the ship when Viscountess Willingdon performed the rechristening ceremony.

Capt. Lovegrove's war service, besides winning him the Distinguished Service Order, increased his capacity as a commander and gave him ample opportunity to reveal his qualities as a seaman.
